

Ten Reasons for Assessment:

- To define specific goals, objectives, and expected outcomes
- To identify strengths and weaknesses
- To inform decision making
- To provide accountability
- To enable program defense
- To seek change, funding, or support
- To validate current practices
- To permit assertiveness
- To increase the probability of achieving goals
- To encourage excellence in the profession