

JACOB HAWK

Jacob Hawk serves as Pulpit Minister for the Riverside Church of Christ in Kerrville, Texas. Previously he served the Llano Church of Christ in Llano, Texas.

Jacob was graduated Summa Cum Laude from Harding University in 2009 with a B.A. in Preaching. He was involved in many student-led leadership organizations and activities and was a frequent speaker and song leader for daily Chapel. He currently is working on a Masters of Ministry degree through Harding's CAMT program.

He attended the Waterview Church of Christ in Richardson, TX, his entire life, and some of his most precious memories were his internships with Robert K. Oglesby, Waterview's Pulpit Minister. Because of mentors like Robert and Jacob's father, Danny Hawk, and others, Jacob began preaching at the age of nine and continued to prepare to become a "local work" preacher.

Jacob married Natalie in 2009. According to Jacob, Natalie is the "perfect preacher's wife" and is loved by everyone. They are expecting their first child, a boy named Hayden, in October.
