Application Fee ($500) paid at the time of application. This fee is non-refundable if you cancel out of the program.

Travel Payments ($3,000 and $2,150) include transportation, accommodations, and food for group trips, as well as round-trip airfare from your home city*. Airline frequent flyer miles may be accumulated, however, no personal frequent flier miles or points may be used to acquire the flight(s). All travel arrangements are made by the International Programs office. A fuel surcharge, imposed by the airlines, may be added. Typically, fuel surcharges range from $100-$400, with the fee not exceeding $500.
Round-trip airfare is based on travel from Little Rock or Memphis. If your home city exceeds this fare, you will be charged accordingly.*

Final Payment ($17,100) includes tuition for 12-16 hours, room and board, program fee, technology fee, local travel, tour guides, museums and art galleries, facility cleaning, and linen/laundry. Most financial aid that you have on the Searcy campus will apply to your semester abroad.

Spending money. You will need to provide your own spending money. We recommend that you allow up to $70-$85 per day for all independent travel for those programs that allow or mandate it.

Those who cancel after airline tickets have been purchased and land travel arrangements have been paid will be liable for any penalties assessed by the airlines and land travel companies. Funds that can be recovered will be returned to the student's account as soon as possible.

If you are enrolling in a future semester not indicated on this cost sheet, you may estimate the payment increase at 4-5% per school year.

Costs and charges are subject to change.
