

Women's Interview Attire – Fit in, don't stand out!

The Suit:

- “ For a conservative organization, a skirt suit is still considered the appropriate interview attire. A pantsuit, while acceptable for some organizations, is still considered less formal.
- “ Hemlines should be knee length or longer ó No miniskirts!
- “ Color does not have to be limited to dark colors, but remember the rule: if you have to ask yourself “Can I?”, then don't
- “ Make sure the suit flatters your figure and is a good fit, not too tight or too loose
- “ Jacket sleeves should fall ½ inch below your wrist.

The Blouse:

- “ Blouses should be updated ó Not low-cut or revealing!
- “ Do not wear a camisole or see through blouse

Shoes:

- “ Shoes should be pumps or sling backs ó Try to avoid open-toed shoes
- “ Shoes should be of good quality and in good condition

Accessories:

- “ Jewelry should be kept minimal and conservative. Remove all facial piercings, except earrings

Make-up and Grooming:

- “ Makeup should be natural looking, better toned down than so loud that they remember your eye shadow but not you
- “ Nails should be clean and manicured, avoid overly long fingernails and nail art
- “ Nail polish and lip color should not be too bright
- “ Hair should be clean and neat in appearance
- “ Perfume should be applied very lightly if at all
