

Basic Training: Tactics for Teachers

This professional development experience is designed to prepare and bolster newer teachers' knowledge, skills, and dispositions to meet the daily challenges of being a teacher as well as reinforce those of the more experienced teacher. Whichever case, these sessions will provide a collaborative and empowering opportunity for you to return to the classroom better equipped than ever before.

WARNING: This session is specifically designed to allow participants to collaborate among themselves to solve their issues and challenges. It will involve intense interaction and problem-solving. It is highly interactive. This day is designed to meet the needs of the participants, not the presenter/facilitator. Participants are encouraged to bring their questions, challenges, and successes to share with everyone.

Topics include (but are not limited to):

- Classroom management and behavioral interventions
- Instructional strategies to include all students
- Creating powerful parent partnerships
- Legal issues facing teachers
- Dealing with stress and challenges on the job

This session will be helpful for teachers who are:

- In their first, second, or third year of teaching
- Experiencing challenges in their teaching environment
- Needing extra knowledge and skills to address immediate needs
- Wanting to polish their existing knowledge and skills
- Looking for opportunities to collaborate with teachers in similar settings

Dr. Lee teaches school law, special education law, and cultural and social issues in education in the graduate education program at Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas. He has presented workshops on Section 504, special education law, school law, classroom management, parent relations, and differentiated instruction for a number of years. He has shared his expertise and experiences with thousands of teachers in numerous districts and coops in Arkansas and other states.

*For more information, contact Dr. Lee at donnyleeconsulting@gmail.com
www.donnylee.net*