“CAUSE” FOR NON-ISSUANCE OF A TEACHING CERTIFICATE

Certificates will not be issued or renewed for individuals who have committed acts that constitute “cause” for revoking certificates as specified in ACT 866 of 1989. Section one of act 866 defines “cause” as:

1. Conviction of a felony.
2. The acknowledged or admitted commission of an act which would constitute a felony under the Arkansas Criminal Code.
3. Holding a teaching certificate obtained by fraudulent means.
4. Revocation of a certificate in another state.
5. Intentionally compromising the validity of security of any student test or testing program administered by and/or required by the Arkansas Department of Education.
6. Knowingly submitting, through the superintendent or directly to the Arkansas Department of Education, falsified information which is requested or required by the Arkansas Department of Education.

An individual will not be admitted to the teacher education program/professional field experiences at Harding University if they have committed any of the acts listed above which constitute “cause” for the non-issuance of a teaching certificate.

In the event a student who has been admitted to the teacher education/professional field experiences program is cited, indicted, or arrested for a criminal offense which may reasonably impact their fitness to teach, immediate suspension from the teacher education/professional field experiences program will result. A plea of guilty, nolo contendere or a judgment of guilty will result in the student being dropped from the teacher education/professional field experiences program.
