

DR. CHRIS SMITH

Since 1997, Dr. Chris Smith has served as Pulpit Minister for the Harpeth Hills Church of Christ in Brentwood, Tennessee. Previously he served churches in Memphis, TN, Louisville, KY, and Duncanville, TX.

Dr. Smith holds the B.A. degree from Lipscomb University, the M.Th. from Harding Graduate School of Religion, and the Doctor of Ministry from Abilene Christian University.

He has contributed articles to over 25 different publications, including Image, Twenty First Century Christian, Leadership, Teenage Christian, Gospel Advocate, and Power for Today. He has been a keynote lecturer at Pepperdine University and Lipscomb University. He is a senior consultant with the Carpenter's Plan, an organization helping churches with their capital campaign needs. He also serves as a board member of Williamson County Habitat for Humanity.

Having been born and raised in Memphis, Dr. Smith married his high school sweetheart. Chris and Vicki have two daughters and one son.