Course Description
Clinical Practicum V (3).  Spring

The fifth level of diagnostic and therapeutic contact with individuals who exhibit communication disorders. The experience will include treatment planning, report writing, and patient/parent counseling. Students will be assigned to outside practicum sites, and clinicians will be supervised by licensed speech-language pathologists employed at the designated setting. This course adheres to university guidelines regarding workload requirements per credit hour

Pre-requisite: Student must receive an A or B in CSD 649 in order to enroll in CSD 659.

Required Materials

- Harding University Speech Clinic: Clinical Manual

Course Objectives

- Demonstrate the skills necessary to plan and execute an assessment of clients with articulation, language, voice, fluency and swallowing disorders at varying severity levels while under the direction of a certified SLP (ASHA Standards V-B: Skills in Evaluation; V-B: Skills in Intervention; V-B: Clinical Interaction and Personal Qualities)
- Demonstrate the skills necessary to plan and implement the treatment of clients with articulation, language, voice, fluency and swallowing disorders at varying severity levels while under the direction of a certified SLP (ASHA Standards V-B: Skills in Evaluation; V-B: Skills in Intervention; V-B: Clinical Interaction and Personal Qualities)

In order to avoid misunderstandings regarding course policies, the student is provided with this policy sheet, which will be the guideline for the course unless altered at a later date by the instructor.
Course Policies

- Student clinicians are allowed 2 PTO (personal time off) days each semester to use for illness, professional conferences, personal engagements, inclement weather, etc.
- Any absences beyond the 2 PTO days must be made up at a time agreed upon by externship director and off-site educator. If missed days are not made up student will not receive clinical hours or course credit.
- Should a student wish to utilize their PTO days, they must communicate to their off-site clinical educator and externship director as soon as possible.
- Proper medical documentation must be provided upon request.
- Student clinicians are expected to follow the established rules and guidelines specific to the assigned practicum sites as well as rules and guidelines of the Harding University Clinic Manual, University Graduate Student Handbook, and Harding University Communication Sciences and Disorders handbook. Any violation will result in a final grade lowered by one letter per offense.
- All deadlines must be strictly adhered to. One letter upon each violation will lower clinic grades.
- All members of the Harding community are expected to maintain standards of modesty and decency in dress appropriate to the Christian lifestyle and consistent with professional employment expectations. For these reasons, students are expected to adhere to an established dress code.
- Additional standards of dress may be required by certain professional and graduate programs, and will be stated in each program’s policies.
- Clinical hours must be logged into Calipso every week by Friday at 6:00 PM

- Student clinicians must follow all policy and procedures found in the following sources:
  - Harding University Graduate Student Handbook
  - Harding University Communication Sciences and Disorders handbook
  - Clinic Manual

- Failure to achieve at least a “B” in any clinical course will result in a revocation of the clock hours accrued during that semester and will not receive credit on KASA until all clinical courses are completed with a grade of “B” or higher. Students achieving a grade of “C” or below may achieve course credit for the class if a passing grade is achieved but must retake the course for the successful completion of the program.
Course Requirements – All course requirements must be completed in order to receive credit for this course.

- Clinical Practicum Lab: Providing therapy services are the primary objective of this class and lab. Clinical assignments will vary. The off site supervisor will provide a mid-term clinical evaluation and a final clinical evaluation. The form used for these evaluations is attached to the syllabus.
- Clinical Hours Paperwork: Complete documentation should be submitted using Calipso. Hours are to be logged and submitted weekly.
- Clinical Paperwork: Depending on your placement, clinical paperwork requirements will differ. Please refer to the assigned off site supervisor for specific instructions.
- Online quizzes
- Each student will actively participate in on-line forums, as assigned. See Canvas modules.
- Each student will provide in-service or educational information at their site to patient, patient families, or facility personnel.
- Each student will be required to complete the KASA supplement form and have it ready to sign during his/her exit interview.
- Completion of exit survey

Grades

- Attendance and participation at class meetings (see attached schedule) 100
- Completion of clinical paperwork for HU 100
- Prevention/Education Project 100
- Online Forum participation (reading responses included) 125

Supervisor’s Final Evaluation is worth 75% of final grade

A 90%-100%
B 80%-89%
C 70%-79%
D 60%-69%
F below 60

Students with Disabilities

It is the policy for Harding University to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal and state law. Therefore, any student with a documented disability condition (e.g. physical, learning, psychological, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the instructor and the Disabilities Office at the beginning of each semester. (If the diagnosis of the disability occurs during the academic year, the student must self-identify with the Disabilities Director as soon as possible in order to get academic accommodations in place for the rest of the semester.) The Disabilities Office is located in Room 102 of the Lee Academic Center, telephone (501) 279-4019.
Integrity Statement
Cheating in all its forms is inconsistent with Christian faith and practice and will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal from the class with a failing grade.

Assessment Statement
Harding University, since its charter in 1924, has been strongly committed to providing the best resources and environment for the teaching-learning process. The board, administration, faculty and staff are wholeheartedly committed to full compliance with all criteria of the Higher Learning Commission.

The university values continuous, rigorous assessment at every level for its potential to improve student learning and achievement and for its centrality in fulfilling the stated mission of Harding. Thus, a comprehensive assessment program has been developed that includes both the Academic units and Administrative and Educational Support units. Specifically, all academic units will be assessed in reference to the following Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose: The University provides programs that enable students to acquire essential knowledge, skills and dispositions in their academic disciplines for successful careers, advanced studies, and servant leadership.
