Additional Information

In addition to attending the Forum, we will meet several times during the first two weeks of the semester and one time when we return.

The pre-Forum meetings will be a series of discussions that will set up the class expectations and cover how we can engage with secular films on a spiritual level. One meeting will be dedicated to trip logistics. The post-Forum meeting will be a sort of debriefing about the experience.

Assessment

For this course, you will write a final paper similar to the one written for Internship. Like that paper, it should be a recounting of the experience you had at the Forum. The essay itself should reflect the work of a college senior who has taken English and writing classes.

There will be additional assignments in the form of daily blogs or vlogs while there as well as reviews of the films you see.

Deposit

To secure your spot, we will need a $350.00 deposit by October 15. Since you will be paying a $1500.00 course fee in January, you will get this deposit back, along with your food allowance, prior to the trip.
