GETTING STARTED WITH BISON PREP

Thank you for your interest in Bison Prep! We are excited for you to become a Harding University student as you get a head start on your college education. We hope that you will love your dual enrollment experience so much that you will decide to complete your degree at Harding. Below are the step by step instructions to complete the Bison Prep dual enrollment process.

Current Cost: (Based on 2019-20 tuition rates)
- Tuition: 90% discount for the first course = $69.30 per hour
- Following enrollment, you will receive a bill for your tuition and fees via mail

Steps to enroll in Bison Prep:
1. Meet with your high school counselor to identify your school’s requirements for dual enrollment.
2. Review the available courses at harding.edu/BisonPrep to determine what you can take and when.
3. Complete the Dual Enrollment Program Approval Form with your desired courses.
4. Complete the Harding University application for admission at harding.edu/apply
   a. Utilize the code provided by your counselor to waive your application fee
   b. Submit the required documentation to complete admission
      i. Official high school transcript – request from your high school counselor to be sent directly to Harding University.
      ii. Qualifying minimum ACT or SAT test score. (19 ACT or 990 SAT)
         1. If the score is included on your transcript, this will suffice for admission
         2. If the score is not included on your transcript, you will need to have it sent directly from ACT or SAT
      iii. Immunization record showing 2 MMR (measles, mumps, rubella). May be emailed to Harding at admissions@harding.edu
5. Submit the completed the Dual Enrollment Program Approval Form (signed by all parties) via mail or in-person. (Available at harding.edu/BisonPrep)
6. Once we have received your application and program approval form, we will notify you via email of any remaining information needed to complete admission.
7. We will notify you of your acceptance to Bison Prep within a few days of receiving all required information.
8. Once accepted, you will receive a notification of your student account and email address and how to login to Pipeline, Harding’s student information portal.
9. You will be enrolled in your selected class(es) and notified by the Harding Office of the Registrar via email with confirmation of your enrollment. Once you receive this confirmation, you may login to Pipeline for details about class start date, time and location as well as any required books or materials.
