SECRETS OF THE KINGDOM
UNLOCKING THE TREASURES OF THE PARABLES
Dear friends,

Welcome to the campus of Harding University and to our 92nd annual Bible Lectureship! Lectureship is a tradition that is as old as the University itself. Harding began as a college where faith permeated the campus. It is our prayer and our goal that such faith still shapes all that we do here. In our most recent mission statement, we reaffirm that “we are, at our core, a Christian university.” The annual Bible Lectureship is a cherished expression of our long-standing commitment to teach the word of God and to serve the church.

One of my favorite stories from Lectureship took place a few years ago when I found a friend of mine in the McIn- teer rotunda as people were packing up and heading home after the four-day event had concluded. I asked him how his experience had been, and he said, “Incredible!” He told me that he was heading back to his home state to share with his preaching friends what he had experienced. He said, “I’m going to tell them that at Harding University they still believe the Bible, and they’re not mad at anybody!” I chuckle every time I remember my friend’s words, but I think he said it well; our annual Bible Lectureship seeks to proclaim clearly and boldly the inspired Scriptures with a gentle, kind, loving and Christ-like spirit.

Again, welcome to campus! I pray that your experience here this week is helpful, uplifting, inspirational, challenging and spiritually refreshing. And I hope you will go home and tell people that you found a special event that takes place at the end of September each year on the campus of Harding University where “they still believe the Bible, and they’re not mad at anybody!”

May the Lord bless you richly,

Dr. Bruce D. McLarty
President

“The disciples came to Jesus and asked, ‘Why do you speak to the people in parables?’ Jesus replied, ‘The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you but not to them. Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. This is why I speak to the people in parables.'” Matthew 13:10-13

Dear guests,

I join Dr. McLarty in welcoming you to Lectureship! It is our prayer that you will leave this year’s Lectureship with an abundance — an abundance of knowledge about the message of the parables, an abundance of insight into the secrets of the kingdom, and most of all an abundance of appreciation for Jesus, the master teacher!

We have assembled a lineup of dynamic speakers to unlock the treasures of the parables. My thanks to them for their willingness to share the fruits of their scholarship.

In addition, the Lectureship Committee spent many months in careful preparation. I am indebted to Scott Adair, Tom Alexander, Andrew Baker, Dale Manor, Karl McLarty, Sherry Pollard, Bill Richardson, Steve Reeves, Daniel Stockstill, Devin Swindle, Phil Thompson, Anessa Westbrook and Noel Whitlock for their vital contributions. I am especially grateful to Teresa Castleman, my administrative assistant, for her creative suggestions and her invaluable work in coordinating the many moving parts that make up this annual event.

Finally, our deepest appreciation goes to you, our Lectureship guests, for your support and encouragement, your active participation in this program, and above all for your work in the kingdom.

Dr. Dan Williams
Lectureship Director

E-Church: Beyond the Distractions, part 1
Andrew Baker and Jim Miller, McInteer 125
Social media can distract and interrupt our lives, but these digital tools can also be strong forces for good. Join us as we explore how churches and individuals can move beyond the distractions and use social media to benefit the kingdom.

Youth in Family Ministry:
The Current Crisis in Youth Ministry
Luke Dockery, McInteer 145
Churches recognize that traditional ways of doing youth ministry do not seem to be leading our young people to a lifelong faith in Jesus Christ. Scripture repeatedly emphasizes the importance of the physical family and the faith family when it comes to discipling young people, so this series will focus on developing a family-centered youth ministry in the local congregation.

When Life Overwhelms Me:
Where Can I Find Help? (Psalm 121)
John Dobbs, McInteer 225
Everyone faces times when the events of life and ministry feel overwhelming. In such times we look to God for help, peace and favor. These three sessions will focus on three Psalms and seek to find help when the waters of life would have engulfed us if it had not been for the Lord.

Re-visioning the Adult Bible Class: What Do You See Now and How Is That Working For You?
Steve Griggs, McInteer 229
If we could see our current adult Bible classes through the eyes of Jesus, it could help us to move from through an information focus to a transformational one. This presentation will discuss ways we can structure our Bible classes in the style of Jesus.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed and the Leaven
Chris Fifer, McInteer 230

A Practical Road Map to Help Us Reach out to Our World, part 1
Artie Shaffer, McInteer 353
So very often we teach and preach about sharing our faith, but our members are at a loss where to begin. We will explore together not a system or a program but practical ways we can interact with our friends and coworkers to help bring them closer to Christ.

Knowing Jesus, Loving Truth: A Gentle Offer in a Skeptical Age, part 1
Kraig Martin, McInteer 234
We learn from Scripture that eternal life is knowing the Father and the Son, and we learn that people perish for “refusing to love the truth.” In this age of a million voices, one can easily feel defeated by the prospect of a search for knowledge or truth. How should the church respond to this present skepticism?

Pure Heart Vision: Paying for Ministry Without Auctioning the Gospel, Two Sides of a Table — How to Pay Ministers: Elders of the Church, part 1
Randy Willingham and Kent Houck, Liberty Room
This daylong series will discuss crucial questions about several different aspects of ministers’ compensation.

Rake Your Leaves (and Other Things I Wish My Neighbor Would Do): The Parable of the Friend at Midnight
Johnny Hobbie, McInteer 230
If someone comes to our front door, it must be a stranger because no one in our small town uses front doors anymore. Could there be a connection between our neighbors, the way we welcome strangers, our prayers, and our expectations from God? When Jesus told us to ask, seek and knock, he told us a lot about those on both sides of the door.

Questions We Wish We Could Ask at Church, part 1
Ross Cochran, McInteer 150

Certain topics may be avoided due to their potential volatility. But unity calls us to respect each other while, and after, we disagree. Three such questions will be explored: (1) How should we view Christ-followers in other Christian traditions? (2) What is the eternal destiny of those who never heard of Jesus? (3) How should the church respond to the issues surrounding homosexuality?

More Than Just Another Evangelical Church, part 1
Dan Chambers, McInteer 125

“Could you tell me something about the church of Christ?” “Could you tell me the difference between the church of Christ and the ___________ church?” If you’ve ever been on the receiving end of questions like these, then this three-part series is for you. You can expect to walk away from this series not only with renewed confidence in being able to share the restoration idea with others but also with a renewed conviction that being a New Testament-shaped church is still a goal worth pursuing.

Maintenance to Missional, part 1
Steve Cloer, McInteer 145

Shepherding: Gifted to Equip or Mentor
Leon Barnes, McInteer 229

Every eldership I’ve ever worked with struggled to find the balance between eldering and shepherding. The constant pressure is on them for decisions, and it makes it extremely difficult to get to the people to help them grow and become mature in the faith to be ones who win others for Christ. How in the world can we get it all done?

Seizing the Property Only to Lose the Inheritance: The Parable of the Wicked Tenants
Karl McLarty, McInteer 230

Black Presence in Restoration History, part 1
James Maxwell, McInteer 353

This series reveals several widely unknown facts about the impact of the Restoration Movement among African-American Christians and how many of the past and current changes affect them.

The Care and Feeding of Missionaries:
Serving Those Who Serve
Dale Hawley, McInteer 253

The lives of missionaries can be highly stressful. Learning a new culture, speaking a different language, living far from family and friends, and wrestling with how to most effectively serve God in a mission point can be a significant challenge. This session will focus the importance of missionary care and how to provide spiritual and emotional encouragement to those we support.

Pure Heart Vision: Overcoming Three Temptations of Ministering to Others — Intimacy
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

Women’s Program: Power of Storytelling
Calandra Cook, McInteer 233

Storytelling was one of the primary teaching strategies of Jesus. Not only did he use parables to explain the nature and will of God, but he also used them to connect to his listeners. We can learn how to make similar explanations and connections with our own stories.

Women’s Ministry:
Influences on Spiritual Development
Anessa Westbrook, McInteer 225

Women’s Program: Teach Like Jesus — Pre-School
Rita Fant, McInteer 234

The enticement of wealth presents a formidable challenge to Christians. The lure of larger salaries, bigger houses, newer cars and stockpiles of “stuff” distorts Godly values. Jesus brings us back to reality in the parable of the rich fool found in Luke 12:13-21.

Black Presence in Restoration History, part 2
James Maxwell, McInteer 353

Missionary Family Care
Dale Hawley, McInteer 253

Missionary families are in a unique situation. Living with a foot in two worlds, they balance cross-cultural dynamics with everyday family life. While life on the field is often a rich experience for families, it comes with challenges. This session will focus on fostering healthy families in the field and how those of us at home can help.

Pure Heart Vision: Overcoming Three Temptations of Ministering to Others — Money
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

Women’s Program: The Cursed Fig Tree
Laurie Walker, McInteer 233

Jesus has harsh words for a fig tree without figs — even though figs were out of season! This seemingly bizarre behavior on the part of Christ has much to say to today’s Christians. How are we doing in our quest to “bear fruit” for the kingdom?

Women’s Ministry:
Mentoring Through Tough Choices
Tina Ratcliff, McInteer 225

Women’s Program: Teach Like Jesus — First Grade: Let the Little Children Come to Me
Wanda Knabe, McInteer 234

So many times we do not see the command in Jesus’ words. Jesus told us to let the children come to him. Bible class is a way to bring the children to him, and it can be really fun! Come and find out how to share the parables with the children in your church family.

Going to the mission field with a team can be a lifesaver and a point of great frustration at the same time! Team members provide an oasis of support in foreign culture, but they can also a source of conflict. This session will explore dynamics unique to mission teams and offer ideas about working together successfully.

World of the Parables:
Agrarian Customs in Jesus’ Day
Dale Manor, Cone Chapel
Many of Jesus’ parables draw from everyday life; this series will consider the daily life contexts of these stories, noting their agricultural, economic and social settings.

Colossians: Introductory Matters
Everett Ferguson, Heritage Auditorium

How Church Leaders Can Strengthen the Families in Their Congregation
Trey Morgan, McInteer 150
In these three lessons, Morgan will be discussing “why and how” churches should be focusing on building strong marriages and families. Strong families make strong churches that make strong communities that make a strong nation. We cannot overlook this ministry.

What the Supreme Court Ruling on Same-Sex Marriage Means for Churches and Ministers, part 1
Trey Morgan, McInteer 150
Earlier this year the highest court in our land issued a ruling recognizing same-sex marriage in all 50 states. In these two sessions our panel of experts will discuss the legal and spiritual implications for churches and ministers.

New Tools to Connect With Seekers in America
John Reese, McInteer 145

Conversational Evangelism
Bob Brown, McInteer 229
Evangelism is conducted in many forms and contexts, but the most common and effective format is through personal conversation. It was the practice of our Lord and the first century Christians. Today it is still highly effective.

The Parable of the Pharisee and Tax Collector: Two Ways to Be Saved
Ken Stegall, McInteer 230
Jesus used parables to illuminate vital kingdom truths to those who “had ears to hear” (i.e. “wanted to learn”). This story contrasts the results of law-righteousness and imputed righteousness, specifically spotlighting the negative effects of thinking you must be “good enough” to go to heaven.

The Psalms in First Temple Worship
Justin Rogers, McInteer 353
The Trinity and Why It Matters: What’s at Stake
Mark Powell, McInteer 253
The first session explores the central issues underlying the doctrine of the Trinity in the New Testament and the early church.

Abundant Living: Keep Working for Jesus — Excuses God Does not Accept
Howard Norton, Liberty Room
These lessons deal with principles that senior Christians should practice in order to enjoy the abundant life and fulfill their purpose on the earth.

Women’s Program: Sink or Stand? Putting the Parable of the Two Builders Into Practice
Heather Burchfield, McInteer 233
Are you preparing to sink or stand when the rains come tumbling down?

Noel Whitlock, moderator, with panel, McInteer 125
Earlier this year the highest court in our land issued a ruling recognizing same-sex marriage in all 50 states. In these two sessions our panel of experts will discuss the legal and spiritual implications for churches and ministers.

The Urgency of Evangelism
Bob Brown, McInteer 229
All of us agree that everyone needs to saved. However we sometimes think and behave as if we and those we teach are going to live forever. But we won’t.

The Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus
Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 230
The story of the rich man and Lazarus provides a context for us to see what is important in life as we prepare for eternity.

The Psalms in Second Temple Worship
Justin Rogers, McInteer 353

The Trinity and Why It Matters: Christian Living
Mark Powell, McInteer 253
The second and third sessions explore the significance of the Trinitarian vision of God for Christian living and ministry.

Abundant Living: Keep Working for Jesus — Fundamentals of the Good Life
Howard Norton, Liberty Room

Women’s Program: Workers in the Vineyard — Pride, Greed and Forgiveness
Chelsie Grate, McInteer 233
Do we allow our pride and greed to limit the kingdom? Pride and greed seem trivial sometimes, yet sin is sin. As we examine the parable of the workers in the vineyard together, let us look at our own lives and seek to be more like Jesus and less like the world that entangles us.
