WRITTEN IN STONE
The Enduring Value of the Ten Commandments

Harding University’s 95th Annual Bible Lectureship
September 30–October 3, 2018

Jesus could assume his inquirer knew the Ten Commandments by heart and respected them as foundational principles of the Law of Moses and the building blocks for a spiritually stable and successful life. Given today’s widespread biblical illiteracy, we can no longer make that assumption. That’s why in this year’s Lectureship we are going back to the basics to take a fresh look at these timeless truths.

When the young man affirmed his obedience to the Ten Commandments, Jesus declared that was not enough and went on to call the questioner to discipleship, saying “Come, follow me” (Luke 18:21-22). That’s why we will be viewing the Ten Commandments through the lens of the new covenant in which they find their fulfillment in Christ.

We have assembled a diverse lineup of dynamic speakers for this year’s program. My thanks to them for their willingness to share the fruits of their scholarship. In addition, the Lectureship Committee spent many months in careful preparation. I am indebted to Tom Alexander, Andrew Baker, Teresa Castleman, Alex Jamerson, Dale Manor, Karl McLarty, Bill Richardson, Daniel Stockstill, Devin Swindle, Phil Thompson, Anessa Westbrook and Noel Whitlock for their vital contributions.

I am especially grateful to Teresa Castleman, our event coordinator, for her creative suggestions and her invaluable work in organizing the many moving parts that make up this annual event.

Finally, our deepest appreciation goes to you, our Lectureship guests, for your support and encouragement, your active participation in this program and, above all, for your work in the kingdom.

Dr. Dan Williams
Lectureship Director

Welcome to Harding University’s 95th annual Bible Lectureship! Since our very first year as a college, the Harding community has invited students, alumni, friends and other church leaders from all across the nation and all around the world to gather for four special days of Bible study, encouragement, inspiration, worship and fellowship. Lectureship is always uplifting and inspiring, and we are confident that you will be blessed by your attendance this year.

Our theme this year is “Written in Stone: The Enduring Relevance of the Ten Commandments.” In a time when truth is increasingly viewed as relative and where moral values are often mocked as irrelevant, the Ten Commandments speak with refreshing clarity and amazing power. They remind us that the God who created us knows and desires what is truly best for us, and the Ten Commandments ultimately point us to Jesus, the fulfillment of the Law.

Again, welcome to Harding University and to our 95th annual Bible Lectureship! Your presence here is a gift to every other participant, and we are so glad you came. Our prayer is that by the time you leave, God will refresh your spirit and fill you with renewed passion to share the good things you experience and learn this week.

Dr. Bruce McLarty
President

RISE AND SHINE!

“Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.”  PSALM 100

There is no better way to come into our Father’s presence than with the reverent rejoicing of worship. That is why we have built into the schedule multiple opportunities throughout the week to join our hearts and voices with fellow Christians in singing praises to the Lord.

One such gathering is called Morning Praise. Each morning of Lectureship, from 8:30-8:55 a.m., Mike Wood will lead an uplifting worship assembly in the Administration Auditorium.

Following the Morning Praise session, we will enjoy our morning keynote address at 9 a.m. in the same auditorium. At 9:45 a.m., we will dismiss for our regularly scheduled class presentations in the McInteer Bible and World Missions Building.

The Morning Praise enables us to start the day off on a holy, happy note. Scheduling the morning keynote address at 9 allows our speakers to set the tone for the day and shortens our walk to lunch after the 11 a.m. classes.

Please make a note of this feature of our lectureship format and plan to join your brothers and sisters from around the nation each morning as together we “worship the Lord with gladness and come before Him with joyful songs”!

Dr. Dan Williams
Lectureship Director

LECTURESHIP OFFERING

The annual Harding Lectureship is presented free as our grateful gift to a supportive brotherhood. We do, however, give you an opportunity to partner with us in the kingdom work that goes on here through our Lectureship Offering.

This year’s offering will take place during the Monday 7 p.m. service. All of the money given will support scholarships to train gospel preachers. Make your tax-deductible check to Harding University and note on the memo line that it is for the Lectureship Offering. Place your check or cash in the offering plate when it is passed on Monday night. If you wish to give by credit card, you will find a booth set up in the lobby of Benson Auditorium on Monday from 6 to 8:45 p.m.

If you cannot be here that night, but still wish to participate in this offering, bring your gift by the Office of University Advancement in David B. Burks American Heritage Building 214 or mail your check to Harding University, c/o Dr. Bryan Burks, Box 12238, Searcy, AR 72149.

The Ten Commandments in Covenantal Context, part 1
Kevin Youngblood, Heritage Auditorium

Rushing Wind: The Work of the Holy Spirit, part 1
Monte Cox, McInteer 150

High View of Scripture: The Good, the Bad and the Gestalt
Richard Oster, McInteer 233
An overview of some thoughts and approaches that affirm Scripture embracing specific texts as well as transcendence. Scripture study thrives best in the space shared by the academy and the congregation.

A Scientist Examines Faith and Evidence, part 1
Don England, McInteer 145
In this lecture, the nature of faith will be examined and some of the presuppositions of science will be identified. Faith, although disguised by different terms, is fundamental to all disciplines including science.

Reaching My Hispanic Neighbor Next Door
Tim Archer, McInteer 225
We will discuss practical ways for congregations and for individual Christians to reach out to this fast-growing segment of our population. No Spanish required!

Shepherding: What Every Minister Wants and Needs Most From His Elders
Noel Whitlock, McInteer 229

Youth and Family Ministry: The Most Important Lessons I Have Learned in 35 Years of Youth Ministry, part 1
Jerry Elder, McInteer 230
Harding’s Role in Asian Missions, part 1: Church of Christ Missionaries in Japan Before World War II
Bob Hooper, McInteer 353
Japan was the first concerted effort for mission work outside the United States. Beginning with 1892, the mission effort was led by J. M. McCaleb. It was a time when single women made lasting impressions on the Japanese people.

Sermon Challenge Winner (Timothy Category): The 10-to-Two Transition
Jared Mayes, McInteer 234

11 a.m. MONDAY CLASSES
The Ten Commandments in Covenantal Context, part 2
Kevin Youngblood, Heritage Auditorium
Monte Cox, McInteer 150
Merely Describing God’s Story or Living God’s Story: Practical Lessons From the Life of the Anointed One
Richard Oster, McInteer 233
Lifestyle highlights of God’s story in Jesus and how that can bring greater engagement with God, his son, and his sacred writings.

The Ten Commandments in Romans
Paul Pollard, McInteer 125
A Scientist Examines Faith and Evidence, part 2
Don England, McInteer 145
This lecture will examine conflict and harmony in science and scripture. Suggestions will be given for the avoidance of conflict in personal faith development.

Help! Someone I Know is Addicted, part 1
Adrian Hickmon, McInteer 225
Addictions are no longer only substance abuse. They also include pornography, sexual behavior, video gaming, the internet, gambling and more. This presentation focuses on clearly defining and identifying what an addiction is as well as what it is not, understanding what it means to have an addiction, how to help someone struggling with an addictive behavior, and what is unhelpful and especially how to effectively triage specific situations to match the need to the appropriate level of care.

Why Christian Universities Are Important to the Church
Bruce McLarty, McInteer 229
Youth and Family Ministry: The Most Important Lessons I Have Learned in 35 Years of Youth Ministry, part 2
Jerry Elder, McInteer 230
Harding’s Role in Asian Missions, part 2: Church of Christ Missions After World War II
Bob Hooper, McInteer 353
The mission efforts were led by young graduates of Christian colleges. Centered in Ibaraki Prefecture, graduates of Harding College, David Lipscomb College, and Pepperdine College led in establishing Ibaraki Christian College.

Sermon Challenge Winner (Paul Category): Commandments in Conflict: Prioritizing the Law
Keith Kilmer, McInteer 234
Jesus’ words in Mark 12:28-34 keep us from the extremes of legalism and licentiousness. Jesus’ answer to a Pharisee’s question teaches us that God’s law is relevant, reasonable, and relational.

Willie Nettle, McInteer 229

Youth and Family Ministry: Right Click: Raising Teenagers in a Digital Media World
TJ Davidson, McInteer 230
This session helps equip parents and youth workers to approach this new connected world like a team. It helps you develop relationships, not rules. Supervision, not surveillance. And best of all, a plan that works without making media — or you — the enemy.

Harding's Role in Asian Missions, part 3: The Legacy of George and Sallie Benson
Bob Hooper, McInteer 353
Going to China in 1925, the Bensons were responsible for introducing churches of Christ into China, Hong Kong and the Philippines. The major parts of the mission effort were led by Harding College graduates.

Creating a Great Commission Spirit in Your Congregation
Andy Baker, McInteer 234

3 p.m.

MONDAY CLASSES

The New Atheism, part 1
Ashby Camp, Heritage Auditorium
The New Atheists insist that belief in God is similar to insanity in that it is a conviction lacking any rational basis, a belief that floats entirely free of reason and evidence. Come and hear why that is utter nonsense.
Youth Is My Opportunity, Not My Excuse
Alexander Jamerson, McInteer 150

The Ten Commandments in American Public Life, part 2
Mac Sandlin, McInteer 233

What I Have Learned About Ministry
Don Delukie, McInteer 145
This class will get to the heart and core of what ministry is about: what I thought in my young idealistic stage and what I’ve learned in the realism stage.

Jim Martin
Since January 2014, Jim Martin has served as vice president of Harding School of Theology in Memphis, Tennessee. Prior to this appointment, he served various congregations in Alabama, Missouri and Texas as a preaching minister for 36 years. Most recently he served the Crestview Church of Christ in Waco, Texas, for 20 years. He received his M.Div. from Abilene Christian University and D.Min. degree from Harding School of Theology. Martin has a passion for mentoring and developing Christian leaders and other Christ followers. He regularly has led mentoring groups for both Christian leaders and others in the congregations where he has served. Martin writes a blog, “A Place for the God Hungry,” especially designed to encourage Christians and Christian leaders. Martin and his wife, Charlotte, enjoy spending time with their three grandsons.

Walt Leaver
Walt Leaver is preacher at Brentwood Hills Church of Christ in Nashville, Tennessee, where he and his wife, Carol, have served for the past 21 years. Leaver also serves as a vice president at Lipscomb University. The Leavers have been married for more than 40 years and are blessed with four grown daughters, four sons-in-law and nine grandchildren.

God rejoices when we serve as ministers of reconciliation.

3 p.m.  Special Guests
Hosted by Michelle Goff

Anessa Westbrook
Dr. Anessa Westbrook has served as assistant professor in the College of Bible and Ministry since August 2014. After graduating from Harding with a Bachelor of Arts in psychology in 1995, she and her husband served as missionaries to Hungary for eight years. Anessa holds a Master of Arts and a Master of Divinity from Harding School of Theology. She also completed a women’s ministry certificate from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. She completed her Doctor of Ministry at Fuller Theological Seminary in 2015. Her dissertation was on “Recognition of Need for Spiritual Development among Church of Christ Undergraduate Women at Harding University.” Anessa has published articles and Bible studies for numerous journals and magazines, including Christian Woman and Abilene Christian’s Discernment. She is a speaker at ladies’ events and conferences around the country and internationally. Her family attends College Church of Christ in Searcy where she serves in the women’s ministry and volunteers with various events in their youth program. She and her husband, Tim, have three children and will celebrate 25 years of marriage this year.

Terri Rine
Dr. Terri Rine has earned degrees at Ohio Valley College, Harding University and the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. She has more than 20 years of teaching experience and currently teaches in the Bible department at Harding as well as at University of Central Arkansas. Her family lived and worked at Camp Tahkodah for 17 years. She and her husband, Dennis, have been married 40 years and have one married son, two grandchildren and one deceased daughter. Since the murder of their daughter as a result of domestic abuse, Terri and her husband have had many speaking and counseling opportunities to educate and encourage individuals and families who find themselves in difficult situations. They work with Spark of Life, a nonprofit organization with the motto to “live forward.” She has certification from Save Your Marriage Before It Starts and the Grief Recovery Institute. Terri is a member at Downtown Church of Christ in Searcy where Dennis serves as a shepherd.

Laurie Diles
Dr. Laurie Diles grew up as the child of missionaries in Sao Paulo, Brazil. After earning a bachelor’s degree in elementary education from Oklahoma Christian University, a master’s in communication from Abilene Christian University, and a doctorate in intercultural communication from the University of Oklahoma, Laurie married Allen Diles, and they went to Prague, Czech Republic, as part of a church planting team. During their 11 years in Prague, their children Andrew and Luke were born. Laurie now teaches in the communication department here at Harding University.
The Kenneth V. Neller Preachers Workshop is a daylong, intensive workshop for preachers presented by Harding University's Center for Preaching. Preachers will receive cutting-edge homiletical instruction and inspiring biblical teaching as well as resources for continued study and networking.

The Harding University Center for Preaching exists to promote the ministry of preaching by preparing students and providing resources for ministers and congregations.

(All room assignments subject to change)

Gazing at God: Transformation by the Spirit
(2 Corinthians 3)

Barbara Neller, McInteer 150
Beginning with 2 Corinthians 3:18, this class will explore beholding God with unveiled faces, reflecting his glory, and being transformed into his likeness through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Foremothers in the Faith, part 1

Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145
Hear the inspiring stories of women in our heritage who pioneered in teaching children, in missions, in higher education, and in other endeavors.

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 1

Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 1:
The Sabbath and the Jews

Darren Williamson, McInteer 225
This class focuses on the meaning of the fourth commandment in the life of ancient Israel. In particular, we will explore the origin, purpose and practice of the Sabbath command among the children of Israel.

Shepherding: Eight Keys to Shepherding the Next Generation and Reaching Emerging Adults

Scott Sager, McInteer 229
Want to know what more than 5,000 Christian college students are thinking about faith, spirituality and the future of the church? In this session, we will look at the trends involving emerging adults (ages 18-29) and also locate the challenges facing today’s church in reaching emerging adults. There are many similarities today to the period of the Exile in the Old Testament, and the response needed to engage the next generation may surprise you.
From Mozambique to Millennials, part 1: Shifting Cultural Paradigms and the Atonement
Logan Thompson, McInteer 230

All cultures are based on either guilt, shame or fear, and our understanding of the gospel is affected by the culture in which we find ourselves. As cultures across the globe shift, how might our approach toward presenting the atonement to others shift, too?

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths in a Post-Modern World, part 1
Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 234

Pure Heart Vision — Marriage: The Family’s Heart and the Lure of Idolatry
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

This series will focus on the second of the 10 commandments alongside biblical teaching on the family.

TUESDAY CLASSES

11 a.m.

Bloom Where You Are Planted
Marka Bennett, McInteer 150

An axiom from days past, “bloom where you are planted” still holds meaning and is truth for Christians who believe that God has you exactly where you need to be at any particular time in your life. You will hear how your attitude makes all the difference in how you address your current situation. You’ll hear how 1 Corinthians 7:20, Romans 12:9-21, Isaiah 64:4/1 Corinthians 2:9, and several other Scriptures can help you form the right attitude and give you the determination to “bloom” wherever you are!

Foremothers in the Faith, part 2
Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 2
Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 2: The Sabbath and Jesus
Darren Williamson, McInteer 225

This class addresses the practice of Sabbath in first century Palestine during the time of Christ. Specifically, we will examine Jesus’ dialogue with the Jewish leadership over Sabbath observance and how it informs Christian practice.

Does the Bible Teach ‘Once Saved Always Saved’?
Dave Phillips, McInteer 125

Shepherding: Remove the Perspiring from Hiring and Review
Scott Sager, McInteer 229

Elders and ministers need friends. Ministers and elders need accountability. Ministers, like elders, need to feel like they are part of the decision making team. Elders and ministers want the church to grow, but often the minister/elder relationship is difficult and shared leadership and accountability often are lacking. Perhaps the reason has much to do with how ministers were hired and how they are then evaluated and encouraged. This session will deal with best practices for hiring and performance reviews.

From Mozambique to Millennials, part 2: Teenagers, Shame and the Gospel as Theosis
Logan Thompson, McInteer 230

Teenagers in the United States are increasingly made to feel shame by a culture that is shifting away from its emphasis on guilt. The gospel also addresses the shame brought on by sin, and the concept of theosis (our being restored unto the image of God through Christ) offers a powerful way to present the atonement to young people today.

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths in a Post-Modern World, part 2
Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 234

Pure Heart Vision — Perfected by Trial: A Journey to Home
Randy Willingham and Andrea Morris, Liberty Room

LUNCHES

See page 21 for a list of meals. Other dining options are available. See page 22 for a list of campus dining options.

BOOK SIGNING/OPEN HOUSE
Dale Manor,
Linda Byrd Smith Museum of Biblical Archaeology
McInteer Bible and World Missions first floor
Dr. Manor will be signing copies of his new book, Digging Deeper in the Word. While there, be sure to visit the newly updated exhibits in the museum.

TUESDAY CLASSES

12 p.m.

Seeing God’s Glory in Everyday, Mundane Life
Cheryl Finley, McInteer 150

Not all women are called to have fulfilling jobs. Some feel stuck doing only repetitive or mundane tasks of the home. Learn to see God’s glory even in the mundane.

2 p.m.

Foremothers in the Faith, part 3
Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 3
Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 3: The Sabbath and Christians
Darren Williamson, McInteer 225
This class considers the enduring importance of the fourth commandment under the new covenant. Particularly, we will explore in what sense Christians continue to keep the Sabbath and why the special day for God’s people became the Lord’s Day.

The Christian’s Essential Reading List, part 1
Bob Turner, McInteer 233

Shepherding: Three Keys to Follow the Leader
Scott Sager, McInteer 229
What do we call the group of men who serve a leadership body for the church? Do we call them elders? Or have we made the shift to calling them shepherds? Yet we could also call them overseers if we wanted to as well. The key to understanding the biblical mandate of elders and the primary task and responsibility they hold in the local congregation will be unpacked. This lesson closes with a challenge for all spiritual leaders...to live into the name they wear.

Becoming a Church-Planting Congregation: Identifying a Strategy
Carl Williamson, McInteer 230
The hope for the lost world is found in Jesus’ church that embodies His ministry of reconciliation. The church is in the business of making disciples. Carl invites you to consider how your congregation can find a strategy for fulfilling the mission of God by participating in the work of planting kingdom seeds.

You Can Be a Minister Mentor
David Lane, McInteer 353

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths in a Post-Modern World, part 3

The Enduring Value of the Ten Commandments

Jerry Jones

Jerry Jones possesses a combination of biblical, academic and practical qualifications. He holds two master’s degrees and a doctorate in theology from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He began preaching in 1956, and in 1966 he started teaching in the Bible department of Harding and served as its chairman from 1974–1983. He is the author of 13 books; his latest, Marriage, Divorce, and Remarriage: Seen Through the Character of God and the Mind of Jesus, was published in 2016. After the death of his wife, Claudette, he married Lynn Thompson in 1995. They began their Marriage Matters series in 1996 and since that time they have presented more than 450 conferences in 43 states and six foreign countries. His awards include Outstanding Bible Graduate from Harding College in 1960, Teacher of the Year at York College in 1998, and the Outstanding Alumnus Award from the College of Bible and Ministry at Harding in 2014. He and Lynn have a blended family of five sons and daughters and several grandchildren.

Becoming a Church-Planting Congregation: Invest in the Future
Carl Williamson, McInteer 230
Jesus’ message and life were consistently bringing about the advancement of the kingdom of God. However, his ministry saw drastic changes in participants and disciples. There were times of great harvest, times of great doubt, and times of great faith. Carl shares the importance of the local church investing in the future by starting new ministries, mentoring believers, and starting new churches.

Registration
Please be sure to register at Lectureship Crossroads in the McInteer Rotunda. If you preregistered online, check in at Lectureship Crossroads to get your conference materials. Registration enters you into several drawings including a Harding University Bookstore gift card and several free books. Winners will be announced daily at the 9 a.m. keynote address. Registration and check-in begins at 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 30 and continues through Wednesday.

Lecture Locations
Keynote lectures and most musical presentations will be in Benson Auditorium or Administration Auditorium. Most classes will be held in the McInteer Bible and World Missions Center, Cone Chapel, Heritage Auditorium or Liberty Room. Each location is designated in the schedule. Buildings can be found on the map on page 26.

The Women’s Day Program on Monday will be held in Cone Chapel. The Preachers Workshop on Tuesday also will be held in Cone Chapel.

Displays and Vendors
Displays, both commercial and noncommercial, may be found in the McInteer Rotunda and in the lobbies of Hammon Student Center and Benson Auditorium. Display areas open officially at 5 p.m. Sunday and close at 4 p.m. Wednesday. All guests will benefit by visiting the displays. A partial list of our exhibitors is found on page 8.

Bookstore
The University Bookstore, located in the Student Center, will be open to Lectureship guests Monday and Tuesday from 8:15 a.m.-6 p.m. and on Wednesday from 8:15 a.m.-4:30 p.m. offering 20 percent off on Bibles, commentaries, general religious books and CDs. A limited selection of books published by many of our Lectureship speakers also will be available.

Public Safety (Security)
The University’s Office of Public Safety is on the first floor of the David B. Burks American Heritage Building by the Market Street entrance and may be reached at 501-279-5000.

Recordings
You can listen online to Lectureship recordings at the Lectureship website — harding.edu/lectureship — under the “Recordings” tab. This service is provided free. Recordings will be available online by mid-October 2018.

Celebration of Ministry Dinner
A special feature again this year is the Celebration of Ministry Dinner at 4:30 p.m. Monday before the evening lecture. Guests include elders, ministers of all kinds (children’s, education, outreach, prison, pulpit, seniors, worship, youth and family, etc.), and their spouses. Jim Martin is our speaker. He will be speaking on “Serving With Honor Without Losing Your Mind.” This is one way of expressing how much we appreciate your ministry. There is no charge for this dinner, but tickets must be picked up early at Lectureship Crossroads.

Distinguished Christian Service Awards
Each year during Lectureship, Harding University is pleased to recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the cause of Christ. This year’s recipients of the Distinguished Christian Service Awards are David Lane (presented on Sunday evening) and Bob and Jan Towell (presented on Tuesday evening). On Wednesday, the Hogan-Cate Asian Missions Award will be presented to Adrian Teo Kim Hong.

Lost and Found
Check at Lectureship Crossroads for lost and found items.

Student Chapels
Regular 9-9:35 a.m. and 10-10:35 a.m. student chapels will meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Benson Auditorium with special guest speakers. You are welcome to attend. Students sit in assigned seats, so Lectureship guests will need to sit at the break, on the back six rows, or in the balcony.

A Picture of Health
Tuesday and Wednesday mornings during Lectureship, the Carr College of Nursing and HealthCorp Inc. are offering wellness screenings. Labs offered include cholesterol panels, complete blood counts, comprehensive metabolic panels, thyroid levels, diabetes screening (blood glucose and hemoglobin A1c levels), PSA levels (prostate screening), arthritis panels, etc. See the fliers available at Lectureship Crossroads for a complete list of offerings, prices, location and time, and preparation needed.

Archaeology Museum
The Linda Byrd Smith Museum of Biblical Archaeology is located on the east wing of the first floor of the McInteer Center for Bible and World Missions. The museum displays more than 100 artifacts gathered by Dr. Dale Manor. During Lectureship, the museum will be open Sunday from 3-9 p.m. and Monday through Wednesday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

Harding History House
Come see what’s new at the Harding History House located on the southeast corner of campus, 205 Lott Tucker Drive. Hours during Lectureship are Monday and Tuesday, 3-5 p.m.

Art Exhibit
The department of art and design will host a Lectureship art show with artwork focusing on the Lectureship theme, “Written in Stone: The Enduring Value of the Ten Commandments.” The gallery, located inside the Stevens Art Building, will be open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
CHURCH SERVICES

At Harding University, we appreciate your ministry! The Office of Church Relations and College of Bible and Ministry seek to serve the servants of God by providing resources that will help you and your church. Here are some of the resources we offer:

SPEAKER’S BUREAU: Looking for a speaker for some special event in your church? You will find a list of available presenters on our website.

PREACHER STUFF: Church leaders may subscribe to this free service, which provides daily email postings of useful ministry resources.

ABUNDANT LIVING: This ministry to equip and encourage older Christians offers a quarterly magazine, senior’s ministry training conferences, GrandCamp for grandparents and their grandchildren, and a yearly retreat at Branson, Missouri. We can bring a mini-retreat to your church!

THE KERUSSO EXPERIENCE: This annual summer camp is for young men in grades 9-12 who are interested in preaching.

CHURCH JOBS FORUM: Need to fill a ministry position? Post it on our website!

Want to know more? Visit us at www.harding.edu/churchrelations or call Dan Williams or Teresa Castleman at 501-279-4449.
