A Scientist Examines Faith and Evidence, part I – Don England, McInteer 145

In this lecture the nature of faith will be examined and some of the presuppositions of science will be identified. Faith, although disguised by different terms, is fundamental to all disciplines, including science.

Reaching My Hispanic Neighbor Next Door – Tim Archer, McInteer 225

We'll discuss practical ways for congregations and for individual Christians to reach out to this fast-growing segment of our population. No Spanish required!

Shepherding: What Every Minister Wants & Needs Most From His Elders – Noel Whitlock, McInteer 229

Youth and Family Ministry: The Most Important Lessons I Have Learned In 35 Years Of Youth Ministry, part 1 – Jerry Elder, McInteer 230

Harding's Role In Asian Missions, part 1: Church of Christ Missionaries in Japan Before World War II – Bob Hooper, McInteer 353

Japan was the first concerted effort for mission work outside the United States. Beginning with 1892, the mission effort was led by J. M. McCaleb. It was a time when single women made lasting impressions on the Japanese people.

Sermon Challenge Winner - Timothy Category: The Ten To Two Transition – Jared Mayes, McInteer 234

11:00 a.m. Classes

The Ten Commandments in Covenantal Context, part 2 - Kevin Youngblood, Heritage Auditorium

The Work of the Holy Spirit, part 2 – Monte Cox, McInteer 150

Merely Describing God's Story or Living God's Story, Practical Lessons from the Life of the Anointed One - Richard Oster, McInteer 233

Lifestyle highlights of God's Story in Jesus and how that can bring greater engagement with God, his Son, and his Sacred Writings.

The Ten Commandments in Romans – Paul Pollard, McInteer 125

A Scientist Examines Faith and Evidence, part 2 – Don England, McInteer 145

This lecture will examine conflict and harmony in science and scripture. Suggestions will be given for the avoidance of conflict in personal faith development.

Help! Someone I Know is Addicted, part 1 – Adrian Hickmon, McInteer 225

Addictions are no longer only substance abuse, but also include pornography, sexual behavior, videogaming, internet, gambling and more. This presentation focuses on clearly defining and identifying what an addiction is as well as what it is not, understanding what it means to have an addiction, how to help someone struggling with an addictive behavior and what is unhelpful and especially how to effectively triage specific situations to match the need to the appropriate level of care.

Why Christian Universities Are Important to the Church – Bruce McLarty, McInteer 229

Youth and Family Ministry: The Most Important Lessons I Have Learned In 35 Years Of Youth Ministry, part 2 – Jerry Elder, McInteer 230

Harding's Role In Asian Missions, part 2: Church of Christ Missions After World War II – Bob Hooper
The mission efforts were led by young graduates of Christian colleges. Centered in Ibaraki Prefecture, graduates of Harding College, David Lipscomb College, and Pepperdine College lead in establishing Ibaraki Christian College.

Sermon Challenge Winner - Paul Category : Commandments in Conflict: Prioritizing the Law – Keith Kilmer, McInteer 234

Jesus' words in Mark 12:28-34 keep us from the extremes of legalism and licentiousness. Jesus' answer to a Pharisee's question teaches us that God's law is relevant, reasonable, and relational.

1:00 p.m. Book Signing – Dr. Paul Pollard, McInteer Rotunda

Book Signing/Museum Open House - Dr. Dale Manor

Dr. Manor will be signing copies of his new book, Digging Deeper In the Word, at the Linda Byrd Smith Museum of Biblical Archaeology on the first floor of the McInteer Bible building. While there, be sure to visit the newly updated exhibits in the museum.

2:00 p.m. Classes

The Work of the Holy Spirit, part 3 – Monte Cox, McInteer 150

The Ten Commandments In American Public Life, part 1 – Mac Sandlin, McInteer 233

Punishment & Rewards in the Ten Commandments – Harold Redd, McInteer 125

Why does God say He will "punish the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation"? And what do the punishments and rewards of the Ten Commandments mean for Christians today?

Partnering With your Community for Ministry – Kent Jobe, McInteer 145

Looking for some practical ways to partner with your community for maximum Kingdom impact without sacrificing truth? You will leave this class with proven methods used to build bridges without reinventing the wheel using the resources already present in your community.

Help! Someone I Know is Addicted, part 2 – Adrian Hickmon, McInteer 225

Shepherding: Effective Leadership In A Multicultural Congregation – Willie Nettle, McInteer 229

Youth and Family Ministry: Right Click: Raising Teenagers In A Digital Media World – TJ Davidson, McInteer 230

This session helps equip parents and youth workers to approach this new connected world like a team. It helps you develop relationships, not rules. Supervision, not surveillance. And best of all, a plan that works without making media - or you - the enemy.

Harding's Role In Asian Missions, part 3: The Legacy of George and Sallie Benson – Bob Hooper, McInteer 353

Going to China in 1925, the Bensons were responsible for introducing Churches of Christ into China, Hong Kong, and the Philippines. The major parts of the mission effort were led by Harding College graduates.

Creating A Great Commission Spirit In Your Congregation – Andy Baker, McInteer 234

3:00 p.m. Classes

The New Atheism, part 1 – Ashby Camp, Heritage Auditorium

The New Atheists insist that belief in God is similar to insanity in that it is a conviction lacking any rational basis, a belief that floats entirely free of reason and evidence. Come and hear why that is utter nonsense.

Youth Is My Opportunity, Not My Excuse – Alexander Jamerison, McInteer 150

The Ten Commandments In American Public Life, part 2 – Mac Sandlin, McInteer 233

What I Have Learned About Ministry, Don Delukie, McInteer 145

This class will get to the heart and core of ministry is about. What I thought in my young idealistic stage, and what I've learned in the realism stage.

10:00 a.m. Classes

Gazing at God: Transformation by the Spirit (2 Corinthians 3) – Barbara Neller, McInteer 150
Beginning with 2 Corinthians 3:18, this class will explore beholding God with unveiled faces, reflecting His glory, and being transformed into His likeness through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Foremothers in the Faith, part 1 – Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145
Hear the inspiring stories of women in our heritage who pioneered in teaching children, in missions, in higher education, and in other endeavors.

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 1 – Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 1: The Sabbath and the Jews – Darren Williamson, McInteer 225
This class focuses on the meaning of the fourth commandment in the life of ancient Israel. In particular, we will explore the origin, purpose, and practice of the Sabbath command among the children of Israel.

Shepherding - Eight Keys to Shepherding the Next Generation and Reaching Emerging Adults – Scott Sager, McInteer 229
Want to know what over 5,000 Christian college students are thinking about faith, spirituality and the future of the church? In this session we will look at the trends involving Emerging Adults (ages 18-29) and also locate the challenges facing today's church in reaching Emerging Adults. There are many similarities today to the period of the Exile in the Old Testament, and the response needed to engage the next generation may surprise you.

From Mozambique to Millennials, Part 1: Shifting Cultural Paradigms and the Atonement – Logan Thompson, McInteer 230

All cultures are based on either guilt, shame, or fear, and our understanding of the gospel is affected by the culture in which we find ourselves. As cultures across the globe shift, how might our approach toward presenting the atonement to others shift, too?

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths In A Post-Modern World, part 1 – Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 234

Pure Heart Vision - Marriage: The Family's Heart and the Lure of Idolatry – Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

This series will focus on the second of the 10 commandments alongside biblical teaching on the family where yielding the family to God as an offering trusting him FOR that family we come to a place of surrender and trust even through the difficulties that gives us family as a gift from God rather than as an end in and of itself, thus, solidifying God's place as head of our family table.

11:00 a.m. Classes

Bloom Where You are Planted – Marka Bennett, McInteer 150

An axiom from days past, “bloom where you are planted” still holds meaning and is truth for Christians who believe that God has you exactly where you need to be at any particular time in your life. You will hear how your attitude makes all the difference in how you address your current situation. You’ll hear how I Corinthians 7:20, Romans 12:9-21, Isaiah 64:4/I Corinthians 2:9, and several other scriptures can help you form the right attitude and give you the determination to “bloom” ...wherever you are!

Foremothers in the Faith, part 2 – Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 2 – Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 2: The Sabbath and Jesus – Darren Williamson, McInteer 225

This class addresses the practice of Sabbath in first century Palestine during the time of Christ. Specifically, we will examine Jesus’ dialogue with the Jewish leadership over Sabbath observance and how it informs Christian practice.

Does the Bible Teach 'Once Saved Always Saved'? - Dave Phillips, McInteer 125

Shepherding - Remove the Perspiring from Hiring and Review – Scott Sager, McInteer 229

Elders and Ministers need friends. Ministers and Elders need accountability. Ministers, like Elders, need to feel like they are part of the decision making team. Elders and Ministers want the church to grow. But often the minister/elder relationships is difficult and shared leadership and accountability often are lacking. Perhaps the reason has much to do with how ministers were hired and how they are then evaluated and encouraged. This session will deal with best practices for hiring and performance reviews.

From Mozambique to Millennials, Part 2: Teenagers, Shame, and the Gospel as Theosis – Logan Thompson, McInteer 230

Teenagers in the United States are increasingly made to feel shame by a culture that is shifting away from its emphasis on guilt. The gospel also addresses the shame brought on by sin, and the concept of theosis

(our being restored unto the image of God through Christ) offers a powerful way to present the atonement to young people today.

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths In A Post-Modern World, part 2 – Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 234

Pure Heart Vision - Perfected by Trial: A Journey to Home – Randy Willingham and Andrea Morris, Liberty Room

1:00 p.m. Book Signing – Dale Manor, McInteer Rotunda

2:00 p.m. Classes

Ladies Program - Cheryl Finley, McInteer 150

Foremothers in the Faith, part 3 – Carisse Berryhill, McInteer 145

The Sacred Names of God in the Old Testament, part 3 – Dan Oden, Heritage Auditorium

Remember the Sabbath, part 3: The Sabbath and Christians – Darren Williamson, McInteer 225
This class considers the enduring importance of the fourth commandment under the new covenant. Particularly, we will explore in what sense Christians continue to keep the Sabbath and why the special day for God's people became the Lord's Day.

The Christian's Essential Reading List, part 1 – Bob Turner, McInteer 233

Shepherding - 3 Keys to Follow the Leader – Scott Sager, McInteer 229
What do we call the group of men who serve a leadership body for the church? Do we call them, "Elders"? Or have we made the shift to calling them, "Shepherds"? Yet we could also call them "Overseers" if we wanted to as well. The key to understanding the biblical mandate of elders and the primary task and responsibility they hold in the local congregation will be unpacked. This lesson closes with a challenge for all spiritual leaders...to live into the name they wear.

Becoming a Church-Planting Congregation: Identifying a Strategy – Carl Williamson, McInteer 230
The hope for the lost world is found in Jesus' church that embodies His ministry of reconciliation. The church is in the business of making disciples. Carl invites you to consider how your congregation can find a strategy for fulfilling the mission of God by participating in the work of planting kingdom seeds.

You Can Be A Minister Mentor – David Lane, McInteer 353

Written in Stone: Holding Absolute Truths In A Post-Modern World, part 3 – Gregory Tidwell, McInteer 234

What I Have Learned in Ministry – Roger McCown, McInteer 225

Becoming a Church-Planting Congregation: Inspiring the Heart – Carl Williamson, McInteer 230

The gospel message is powerful in every language, culture, and time. It has transformed atheists into believers, sinners into saints, and it still has the power to transform the callous hearts of church attenders. Carl offers suggestions on how to inspire church members to become ministers to the lost in their community.

Pure Heart Vision – From the Throne to the Pedestal – Randy Willingham, Andrea Morris, and Jerry Neill, Liberty Room

4:00 p.m. Classes

Becoming a Church-Planting Congregation: Invest in the Future – Carl Williamson, McInteer 230

Jesus' message and life were consistently bringing about the advancement of the kingdom of God. However, his ministry saw drastic changes in participants and disciples. There were times of great harvest, times of great doubt, and times of great faith. Carl shares the importance of the local church investing in the future by starting new ministries, mentoring believers, and starting new churches.
