10:00 a.m. Classes
Significant Others: Does God Hear Their Prayers?, part 1 of 3
Monte Cox, Heritage Auditorium
“Significant Others" is about building relationships with our non-Christian neighbors, first by learning what they believe, then by identifying points of contact with our faith as well as points of contrast. What can we learn from Paul about how to engage adherents of other religions in conversations that are respectful, informed and persuasive?

New Perspectives for Processing Romans, part 1 of 3
Rick Oster, McInteer 150
Movement or Monument : The Protestant movement began 500 years ago this very October. Among other things, Luther showed us how powerful it can be when folks look afresh, look often, and look with conviction at God's Word. Romans shows a theology that can keep a Movement from becoming a Monument.
Predators in the Pews: Protecting Our Children, part 1 of 2
Jimmy Hinton, McInteer 233
The son of a pedophile who reported his own father unlocks the pedophile's code and shares invaluable tips for keeping our children safe from sexual predators. Find out how his father, a respected minister, successfully molested dozens of children and kept this secret for over 40 years.

A Winsome Witness: A Restoration Discussion, Part 1 of 3
Dan Chambers, McInteer 125
A series which focuses on presenting restoration beliefs and practices in a positive, persuasive way.

Help! I Have To Choose The Bible School Curriculum, part 1 of 2
Jerry Bowling, McInteer 145
Creating a "Big Picture" vision when selecting and organizing Sunday School Curriculum

THRIVE: It's All About Me?, part 1 of 3
Carl Williamson, McInteer 225
In a culture that is increasingly focused on wealth, narcissism, and celebrities we hear Jesus' words to use worldly wealth to gain friends. How do we use wealth to prosper and flourish for the sake of the kingdom of God? In this lesson, Carl shares experiences from church planting and disaster relief work to encourage Christians to thrive by seeking Him.

Church Inside Out: The Church Inside, part 1 of 3
Tim Archer, McInteer 229
Christians face many challenges when trying to reach today's changing society, yet the biggest hurdles we face are often inside our own congregations. We will look at attitudes in our churches that distance us from the communities around us and examine the role of Christians as ambassadors of the Kingdom.

Paul's Vision for Unity in Romans, part 1 of 2
Shawn Daggett, McInteer 230
Beyond the classical study of Romans as Paul's summary of justification by faith, recent scholarship has focused on this letter providing the basis for unity among a fractured multi-cultural church in Rome. The class will seek to understand the content of this valuable letter in light of the historical background of ethic issues that led to its writing.

A Bolt from the Blue, Martin Luther Taking Europe by Storm, part 1 of 2
Allen Diles, McInteer 353
To celebrate the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Protestant Reformation, we will survey key events and theological principles in the life and teachings of Doctor Martin Luther.

What I've Learned About the Churches of Christ
Bobby Ross, Jr., McInteer 234
After chasing stories all over the U.S., this journalist found Faith — a town in South Dakota with a population of 421. He'll reflect on the insights gained while traveling to 50 states and 12 countries for The Christian Chronicle.

Pure Heart Vision: How Getting Romans Helps Small Churches Grow, part 1 of 4
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room
We have been collecting insight from Romans and from small growing churches that can be given to others. We are gathering multiple resources from many churches to help one church in a way provides useful insight for all small churches seeking to grow.

11:00 a.m. Classes
Significant Others: Does God Hear Their Prayers?, part 2 of 3
Monte Cox, Heritage Auditorium
What can we learn from Paul about how to engage adherents of other religions in conversations that are respectful, informed and persuasive?

New Perspectives for Processing Romans, part 2 of 3
Rick Oster, McInteer 150
Righteousness Based Upon Obedience: Especially since the Reformation, students have seen in Romans a picture of Abraham who has a saving righteousness arising from his faith/trust in God. Romans also reveals another picture on the topic, this time the picture of a slave whose saving righteousness arises from obedience.

Predators in the Pews: Protecting Our Children, part 2 of 2
Jimmy Hinton, McInteer 233

A Winsome Witness: A Restoration Discussion, part 2 of 3
Dan Chambers, McInteer 125

Help! I Have To Choose The Bible School Curriculum, part 2 of 2
Jerry Bowling, McInteer 145
Practical "nuts and bolts" for organizing the Bible school curriculum

THRIVE: Generous Living!, part 2 of 3
Carl Williamson, McInteer 225
In an increasingly materialistic society that can be characterized as greedy we hear the words of Jesus that it is more blessed to give than to receive. How is the kingdom of God transformed by generosity? In this lesson, Carl speaks about the importance of generosity on the expansion of the kingdom of God.

Church Inside Out: The Church Goes Out, part 2 of 3
Tim Archer, McInteer 229
We will look at how to treat people who are at different points in their spiritual journey towards God. We’ll learn how to recognize when people are ready to hear the good news and how to share it with them.

Paul's Vision for Unity in Romans, part 2 of 2
Shawn Daggett, McInteer 230

A Bolt from the Blue, Martin Luther Taking Europe by Storm, part 2 of 2
Allen Diles, McInteer 353

Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

2:00 p.m. Classes

Significant Others: What I Have Learned, part 3 of 3
Monte Cox, Heritage Auditorium
Against the backdrop of the religious alternatives, what makes the Gospel unique?

New Perspectives for Processing Romans, part 3 of 3
Rick Oster, McInteer 150
Life in the Spirit of God: The Apostle Paul cannot imagine the life of a child of God without the crucial work and presence of the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, from Paul’s perspective, our Christian lives are unacceptable to God if they do not manifest a pervasive sanctification that can come only from God’s Spirit.

Reaching the ‘Homelanders’: Characteristics of the Newest Generation of Teens & Children, part 1 of 2
Dan Stockstill, McInteer 233

How do they differ from previous generations? So much focus has been on the Millennials and the second half of the Millennials (iY’s) that we are neglecting the rising generation of students in our ministries. We won’t be as effective as we wish if we continue treating them as Millennials.

A Winsome Witness: A Restoration Discussion, part 3 of 3
Dan Chambers, McInteer 125

Predators in the Pews - Panel Discussion, part 1 of 2
Noel Whitlock, moderator, McInteer 145

THRIVE: Uncommon Kindness!, part 3 of 3
Carl Williamson, McInteer 225

The pluralism of our American culture struggles to find truth in the midst of many divisions, but Jesus teaches that the first will be last and the last will be first. How do we use wealth to show an uncommon kindness that proclaims the gospel of Jesus Christ. In this lesson, Carl shares the parable of the workers in the vineyard and how to start to regain our compassion and kindness in the world.

Church Inside Out: Outsiders No More, part 3 of 3
Tim Archer, McInteer 229

Becoming a member of the church is much like learning how to live in a new culture. This class deals with how to aid new Christians as they learn the culture of the Kingdom and become active members of the church.

Making Our Churches Welcoming to All: Seeing Color Through a Scriptural Lens, part 1 of 2
Tim Westbrook, McInteer 230

The Intentional Associate: Blessing the Congregation, part 1 of 2
Bert Alexander, McInteer 234

Bert will discuss the role of those ministers on staff who do not fill the preaching role on a weekly basis. These areas include education, involvement, teaching, counseling, planning and scheduling, and assisting in transition from one preaching minister.

Pure Heart Vision : How Getting Romans Helps Small Churches Grow, part 3 of 4
Randy Willingham, Liberty Room

3:00 p.m. Classes

The Temple : the Third of Two Sacred Places in Islam
Wissam Al-Aethawi, Administration Auditorium

The Arab-Israeli contention over the ownership of the Temple is a major source of the instability in the Middle East and hence the world. Why do Muslims venerate the Temple?

Book Signing - Monte Cox, author of "Significant Others"
Book Signing, Heritage Auditorium

Reaching the ‘Homelanders’: Characteristics of the Newest Generation of Teens & Children, part 2 of 2

PREACHERS WORKSHOP : Preaching Romans 1-4
Jessie Robertson, Cone Chapel

Perplexing Passages - Romans 5:19 “Through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners.”
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Does Romans 5 teach the doctrine of original sin? If not, then what is Paul’s point, and how does it apply to us?

God’s Women On Mission, part 1 of 2 - You Are an Overcomer!
Penny Kendall, McInteer 233
Our life is a journey that has many paths and stops along the way, but you and I have been planted exactly where He intends for us to be. We are God's women on mission. Join Penny as she explores the gift of Christ's redemption, helps you uncover your true identity in Him, and shares insight on how you can become all you were meant to be, for His glory!

Shepherding for Shepherds, Prospective Shepherds, and Sheep, part 1 of 3
Jerrie Barber, McInteer 125
Leadership and Grace. Shepherding is more rewarding and effective when one understands that leadership is a gift and not a grind.

Multicultural Conflict in Missions, part 1 of 3
Evertt Huffard, McInteer 145
A Test of Character—an Accepting Heart. If you go on short-term mission trips, oversee a missionary, host a Spanish speaking congregation, interact with leaders of ethnic churches in your area, or have bicultural couples in your congregation, you will discover the need for skills in developing meaningful relationships to manage inevitable conflict. Start with developing skills to be understood as open, accepting, and worthy of trust.

Little Rag Doll: Child Abuse Identification and Intervention
Crystal Whittington, McInteer 225

Living the Kingdom Life Now, part 1 of 2: No Rules; Just Right
David Syrgley, McInteer 229
This first session will discuss the early church's spiritual context and early Christian's understanding of the sacred and profane. Understanding this environment can help Christians today focus on what is important.

Go, Baptize, Teach: How Our Church Is Reaching 50+ People Per Year, Developing Leaders, Planting Churches & How Yours Can Too, part 1 of 2
Wes Woodell, McInteer 230
In this session Wes Woodell will tell the story of how he came into contact with a congregation in the Midwestern United States having success in ministry unlike any he’d ever witnessed. How were they doing it, what was different about them compared to others, and what can we learn?

Bible School, part 1 of 3
Tom Tignor, McInteer 353
Today’s Bible teachers face many challenges that were unknown a generation ago. Discover those differences and learn the immense power of a teacher who truly cares.

Embracing Your Season, part 1 of 2
Thomas Jackson, McInteer 234

Keys To Success in Youth & Family Ministry
Shannon Cooper, Liberty Room
Parents and church leaders alike have the task of raising each new generation in the Lord. How can we work together to create a new generation of disciples in an ever changing culture? Join the conversation ...

11:00 a.m. Classes

PREACHERS WORKSHOP : Preaching Romans 5-8
Mike Ireland, Cone Chapel

Perplexing Passages - Romans 9:10f. “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Does Romans 9 teach the doctrine of unconditional predestination? If not, then what is Paul’s point, and how does it apply to us?

God’s Women On Mission, part 2 of 2 - Becoming Your Meant-To-Be
Penny Kendall, McInteer 233

Shepherding for Shepherds, Prospective Shepherds, and Sheep, part 2 of 3
Jerrie Barber, McInteer 125
Developing Elders in Churches that Have Never Had Them Before: How does a church grow from no elders to a functioning eldership and a supporting followship?

Multicultural Conflict in Missions, part 2 of 3
Evertt Huffard, McInteer 145
A Common Point of Tension—the Individual or the Group. One of the strongest cultural influences on Christians in America, that they may not even be aware of until they step into another world, is a rigid individualism that impacts how they view evangelism, study of the Word, lead churches and manage conflict.

Domestic Abuse Identification and Intervention
TBD, McInteer 225
Living the Kingdom Life Now, part 2: Disciplines of Reintegration
David Syrgley, McInteer 229
Christian spirituality isn't about mastering rules, but about life. This session will discuss how to reclaim our life from the profane world and reintegrate it into the kingdom life that God desires for all Christians.

Go, Baptize, Teach: How Our Church Is Reaching 50+ People Per Year, Developing Leaders, Planting Churches & How Yours Can Too pt. 2, part 2 of 2
Wes Woodell, McInteer 230
In this session Wes outlines core principles driving the philosophy of ministry he believes are major contributors to evangelistic success and the healthy spiritual development of people. How can these principles be applied in your own life and ministry?

Bible School, part 2 of 3
Tom Tignor, McInteer 353
Our uniqueness and diversity present a challenge in the Bible class. Have fun exploring the ways different personalities and learning styles affect the teaching/learning process.

Embracing Your Season, part 2 of 2
Thomas Jackson, McInteer 234

Sticky Faith: Helping Teens To Stay Faithful For the Long Haul
T.J. Davidson, Liberty Room
50-70% teens who were raised in Christian homes are severing ties with the church once they graduate from high school. This presentation will look at the roots of this cultural phenomenon and consider cutting-edge research to learn what parents, churches, and youth ministries can do to help foster deep and long-lasting commitments to God and the church. The results might surprise you.

1:00 p.m.

Scott Adair and Devin Swindle, Cone Chapel

Perplexing Passages - Romans 11:26 “All Israel will be saved.”
Keith Stanglin, McInteer 150
Does Romans 11 teach the final salvation of ethnic Jews? If not, then what is Paul’s point, and how does it apply to us?

LADIES : You’re Under Arrest!
Kim Mote, McInteer 233
The Mind is a BATTLEFIELD. The struggle is REAL. As our minds are transformed, so are marriages and relationships. Romans 12:2

Shepherding for Shepherds, Prospective Shepherds, and Sheep, part 3 of 3
Jerrie Barber, McInteer 125
When shepherds shepherd shepherds, they will more effectively shepherd the sheep.

Multicultural Conflict in Missions, part 3 of 3
Evertt Huffard, McInteer 145
The Deepest Spiritual Battle—Guilt or Shame. Conflicts result in broken relationships. Attempts to avoid conflict or reconcile relationships by directly addressing the offender in a shamed-based society misses the need for indirect methods of reconciliation. If you live in a society with little concern for honor you will be blind to the power of saving face.

Sex, the Stork & Starbucks from a Christian Perspective
Crystal Whittington, McInteer 225

Reformation History, part 1 of 2
Paul Haynie, McInteer 229
The men who prepared the ground for Luther; tackling the core issue of: "Where does spiritual 'authority' lie?" How did Luther build on this foundation?

How to Connect With Seekers in Your Community
John Reese, McInteer 230
“I have many people in this city” (Acts 18:10). Every community has seekers. WBS Connect sets you up (free) to find and teach them. See success stories, especially impacting the United States. Connect can also target your mission region with web ads.

Bible School, part 3 of 3
Tom Tignor, McInteer 353
Bible curriculum is intended to be a tool rather than a crutch. Learn the inside scoop on how curriculum is created and assembled for maximum effectiveness.

Falling Short of God’s Glory: Remaining Serious About Sin: Where It All Went Wrong, part 1 of 2
David Anguish, McInteer 234
In Romans, Paul repeatedly referred to God’s glory, His desire for humanity to be glorified, and, significantly, to the universal existence and controlling nature of sin in leaving us short of His glory. In part 1, we will examine Paul’s development of this theme in the letter’s first major section, examining the extent and danger of the problem sin poses for us.

Ministry To Children On The Spectrum, part 1 of 2
Andrew Phillips, Liberty Room
Research estimates that 1 in 68 children in America have autism spectrum disorder, which means that autism likely affects many families in our congregations. These two class sessions will explore how we can better understand autism, how we can teach individuals on the autism spectrum, and how we can minister to families impacted by it.

3:00 p.m. Classes

The Judaizers : From Jesus to Muhammad
Wissam Al-Aethawi, Administration Auditorium
The Judaizers were neither Jews nor Christians. Not much survived from their beliefs outside Islam.

PREACHERS WORKSHOP : Preaching Romans 12-16
Jim Martin, Cone Chapel
What Do I Do With My Human Nature?
Michelle Goff, McInteer 233
There is a difference between human nature and sinful nature. Through a better understanding of “flesh,” we can follow Christ’s example of how we can live according to human nature—with all of the emotions and human conditions He also faced—while avoiding our sinful nature. We are invited to live a human and holy life—not perfect, but set apart for a purpose.

College Planning for Parents & Grandparents
McInteer 225
Representatives will be available to provide essential information and answer all of your questions about how to provide a Christian education for your children or grandchildren.

Reformation History, part 2 of 2
Paul Haynie, McInteer 229
How Luther’s personality provided him the insight and strength to break with the Catholic powers and crack open the spiritual door to religious freedom. The importance of Luther’s family life to his success.

Missions and the Fear of God
Doyle Kee, McInteer 230
A vastly neglected Biblical subject is the concept of the "fear of the Lord". A priority in the life of the church is "missions" in all its forms. What is the relationship between these two important subjects? During this hour of study we will search for the connection.

Kingdom Business - Ken Kilpatrick, Compassion 21
Tommy Bush, McInteer 353
Spreading the Gospel and serving the poor and outcast of society was the hallmark of our Lord’s ministry. This class will discuss effective ways to reach the poor drawing from twenty three years of experience serving in the inner city of Montgomery, Alabama.

Falling Short of God’s Glory – Remaining Serious About Sin: Sin Is a Big Deal, part 2 of 2
David Anguish, McInteer 234
In part two of our study, we will emphasize what Romans shows us about the nature of sin, the help we must have to overcome it, and how this knowledge helps prepare us for more humble submission in faith.

The Righteous God, part 1 of 3
Jim McGuiggan, Heritage Auditorium
Reflections on Paul's presentation in Romans of the God who maintained and maintains covenant faithfulness and who revealed Himself in and as the Lord Jesus Christ.

Artifacts and the Old Testament Story, part 1 of 2
Dale Manor, Cone Chapel
The biblical story takes place in time and space—and with things! These presentations will show artifacts and photographs of artifacts that play overt as well as subtle roles in the events and lives of people of the Bible. As we grasp these points of contact, the dynamic of the message of the Bible becomes more rich and vivid.

Creating a Culture of Leadership : Practical Suggestions for Church Leaders, part 1 of 3
Aubrey Johnson, McIntee 150
Suggestions for Deacons - Dependable deacons are the key to healthy churches. How can you help your deacons succeed?

Transformative Bible Study, part 1 of 3
Kathy Pollard, McIntee 233

Perplexing Passages - Romans 8 : The Ministry of the Spirit
Paul Pollard, McIntee 125
One of the issues in Romans, and relevant for contemporary Christians, is the connection between the Holy Spirit and ethics in Romans 8. The question is: why do we need the Holy Spirit and why is it so emphasized in this seminal chapter?
Abundant Living – Building a Rewarding Retirement
Tony Mickholtzick, McInteer 145
"Retired?" So now what are you doing?

How Does the Bible View Women?

An overview of major biblical passages about women from Genesis through the New Testament letters.

Using Romans Evangelistically, part 1 of 2
Ken Stegall, McInteer 229
For over forty years Ken and his wife have had groups into their home to study the message of the first eight chapters of Romans. This study is life-changing to both Christians and non-Christians.

Nurturing the Ministers Spiritual Life, part 1 of 2
Lawrence Rodgers, McInteer 230
How does the minister practice self-care while caring for others? Furthermore, how does the minister remain balanced and avoid pitfalls such as, neglecting one’s family, or burning out? Rodgers will explore these questions and more in two sessions on the nourishment of the soul for the servant-leader.

Internet Based Ministry Resources, part 1 of 2
Carlus Gupton, McInteer 353
Top Selections for Church Leaders - A review of the most useful websites, blogs, podcasts, newsletters, and video channels for church leadership.

God and the Single Christian, part 1 of 3
Steve McLeod, McInteer 234
We will explore a biblical view that honors singleness as a status equal to marriage and present a theological and historical context within which to understand what it means to be single as a Christian.

11:00 a.m. Classes

Righteousness from God, part 2 of 3
Jim McGuiggan, Heritage Auditorium
Reflections on what Paul would include if he used the phrase: "Right with and before God."

Artifacts and the Old Testament Story, part 2 of 2
