

Harding Honors Symposium

WHAT TO BRING

Except as noted, the following is a suggested list:

- Clothing for classes, church, banquet, and outdoor recreational activities
 - Classroom activities
 - Closed toed shoes (required during a portion of curriculum)
 - Church and banquet activities (there are times when you will want to look your best)
 - Work activities (clothes that you are willing to get dirty for service projects)
 - Sports activities (athletic shoes and socks)
 - Water sports activities (all participants must wear appropriate length cut-offs or shorts and a T-shirt; water shoes or a second pair of shoes is highly recommended)

Clothing must be modest and must meet Harding's dress code. See the Honors Symposium Policies document for details about the dress code.

- We recommend you bring these items:
 - Bible
 - Any required medication or prescription drugs
 - Backpack, school notebook, pencils, and pens
 - Twin-sized sheets (LONG twins for guys), pillow, bath towels, wash cloths, soap, toiletries
 - Alarm clock
 - Duffle bag to take on the camping trip
 - Sleeping bag (essential)
 - Re-usable water bottle (essential)
 - Sunglasses, sunscreen
 - Beach Towel
 - Bug spray (this item is essential for the camping trip)
 - Flashlight
 - Any instrument (musical or otherwise) that you may want to use to demonstrate a talent (for talent night)
 - Cell phone
 - Spending money (suggested amount – $45.00 – some spend less; some spend more). You will not be asked for money, but you may want to order a late-night pizza or to buy something in our bookstore, etc.; money for laundry (bring laundry detergent).
