JOEL ANDERSON, PH.D.

A 1964 graduate of the University, Dr. Joel Anderson has accomplished much in his extensive career in higher education. He currently serves as chancellor emeritus of University of Arkansas at Little Rock and scholar-in-residence for UALR Anderson Institute on Race and Ethnicity. He previously served as chancellor from 2003 to 2016 and also has served as assistant professor of political science, founding dean of UALR Graduate School, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs.

Among the highlights of his years as chancellor was UALR's first comprehensive fundraising campaign, which topped $103 million. He played an integral role in growing the campus footprint, expanding academic offerings into master's and doctoral levels, and establishing a reputation for community engagement. He earned several honors and distinctions for his work to build the university's extensive and close relationship with the greater metropolitan community.

In addition to a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Harding, Dr. Anderson earned a Master of Arts in international relations from American University and a Ph.D. in political science from University of Michigan. He also completed the Harvard one-month Institute for Educational Management. Dr. Anderson has served on 11 boards, including Arkansas Symphony Orchestra, United Way and Arkansas United Community Coalition board, among others. Numerous organizations have recognized him for his contributions.

He and his wife, Ann Gaskill ('67), have three sons and six grandchildren. He was a starter on his high school basketball team, and he and his wife will be seen at all UALR Trojan basketball games. They are longtime members of Pleasant Valley Church of Christ.

ALMA MATER

Near the foothills of the Ozarks,
Midst of hill and plain; Stands our glorious Alma Mater;
Harding is her name.

Chorus:
Sing the chorus, shout it loudly!
Echoing thro' the vale.
Hail to thee, beloved Harding!
Alma Mater, Hail!

Christian standard is her motto;
Christian life is stressed; And in ev'ry branch of learning,
Each one does his best.

Harding opens wide her portals,
Thus inviting all
Who would tread the path to knowledge, Heed then to her call.

"AS THE DEER"

As the deer pants for the water
So my soul longs after You.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You.

Chorus:
You alone are my strength, my shield;
To You alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
And I long to worship You.

You're my friend and You are my brother
Even though you are a King.
I love You more than any other,
So much more than anything.

I want You more than gold or silver,
Only You can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy giver,
And the apple of my eye.

HARDING UNIVERSITY

Harding University has a rich history of quality education. Harding was chartered as a senior college in 1924 when two junior colleges, Arkansas Christian College and Harper College, merged their facilities and assets, adopted the new name of Harding College, and located on the campus of Arkansas Christian in Morrilton, Arkansas. The school was moved to Searcy in 1934, and the Board of Trustees approved a recommended change of Harding to university status in 1979.

Harding was named in memory of James A. Harding, a pioneer Christian educator who founded Nashville Bible School (Lipscomb University) in Tennessee. He challenged his co-workers with an enthusiasm for Christian education that remains a significant tradition at Harding University.

At the charter, J.N. Armstrong, who had served five years as Harper's president, became president of Harding College, holding the office from 1924-36.

In 1936, George S. Benson returned from mission work in China to assume the presidency of his alma mater. Benson directed the college from a deep indebtedness into a state of financial stability, national recognition and academic accreditation. He retired in 1965 after 29 years of tireless service.

Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr., a 1943 graduate, served as president from 1965 to 1987. A former history department chair and vice president of the college, Ganus kept alive his predecessors' drive for excellence by leading a plan of campus improvement and expansion. At his retirement, Ganus became Harding's first chancellor and is now chancellor emeritus.

Dr. David Burks became the fourth president in 1987. A 1965 graduate, he has been a member of the faculty since 1967 and has served as dean of the College of Business Administration. Under his leadership, the University experienced record growth in enrollment and giving and, more importantly, placed significant emphasis on Christian servanthood. The goal of his administration was the integration of faith, learning and living. Burks continues his service to Harding as chancellor.

Dr. Bruce McLarty, a 1978 graduate and the University's fifth president, entered office in June 2013. Prior to this role, McLarty was the first vice president of spiritual life for the University, serving concurrently as dean of the College of Bible and Ministry until 2008, after which he retained the vice presidential role. As the result of his doctoral work, the University adopted his five-chapter curriculum, "Embracing the Mission," which focuses on maintaining the faith-based principles Harding was built upon. With that focus in mind, the University seeks to develop the whole person through a spiritual emphasis in academics, athletics, Bible classes and chapel. Thus, Harding's 5,122 students, representing 50 states and 50 countries and territories, are empowered for ministry, church leadership and a lifetime of service.
