The next Legacy Scholarship, an award of about $500, will be given to a freshman entering Harding in the fall of 2022. Diligence, capability, leadership, scholarship, and financial need will be considered in awarding the scholarship in addition to a required essay on the topic, "What Harding has Meant to My Family." Application forms may be obtained by sending an email to dduke@harding.edu. The deadline for completed application forms is June 15, 2022.

CLASS OF '72 LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP
APPLICATION FORM FOR 2021-2022 SCHOOL YEAR

The Class of '72 Legacy Scholarship is awarded each fall to a Harding University freshman who is a descendent of a former Harding student. The award is based on diligence, capability, leadership, scholarship, financial need, and an essay on the topic, "What Harding University has Meant to My Family."

Applications for the scholarship must include the following items. Please check them as they are completed.

- A Class of '72 Legacy Scholarship application form completed by the student.
- A list of the student's high school and community activities and awards.
- A brief description of the student's plans for the future.
- A paragraph describing any special financial needs of the student and/or the student's family which might impact funding for the student's college education.
- The student's high school transcript including ACT and/or SAT scores.
- A letter of reference from a church leader in the student's home congregation, and a letter of reference from a school administrator or teacher from the student's high school.
- An essay written by the student on the topic, "What Harding has Meant to My Family," which should also include what the student expects to gain from a Harding education. The essay should be 300 to 500 words in length.

All materials should be scanned and emailed to dduke@harding.edu
