It's Great To Be At Harding!

Welcome to campus! We are so glad you are here.

This student handbook contains important information on a wide range of topics. All of these details are anchored in the following words found in our mission statement: “We are, at our core, a Christian university. The character, example and concerns of Jesus Christ are the standards that shape us and chart the course for our future ... For many years it has been our motto that Harding University integrates and celebrates ‘faith, learning, and living.’ The Christian world view is to be at the core of every academic discipline and every extracurricular activity on campus.”

We hope that you will be able to join the many thousands who enthusiastically agree that “it’s great to be at Harding,” and we pray that you have an incredible Harding experience.

— Dr. David B. Burks, president

Harding is a private, Christian university that teaches the inspiration of the Scriptures and strives to follow Christ and all he taught. Students are encouraged to live up to the high expectations and policies set forth in this handbook as they are designed for optimum development of social, academic, physical, emotional and spiritual potential.

Students and faculty are encouraged to develop a servant-leadership-ministry lifestyle. Good citizenship exemplifies the integration of faith, learning and living. (section 1)

Spiritual growth is encouraged, and students are invited to maximize personal development in this area while at Harding by becoming personally involved with a congregation of believers. (section 2)

Students are expected to be men and women who pursue honesty and integrity. Lying, cheating, stealing or any form of dishonesty must be avoided. (section 3)

Social wellness is stressed, and students in the Christian university environment must exclude all forms of sexual immorality, pornography and profanity from their activities. (section 4)

Personal wellness is stressed, and students must abstain completely from the use of illegal drugs, alcohol or tobacco in any form. (section 5)

Students are expected to dress modestly and appropriately at all times. (section 7)

Students are encouraged to serve others as a way to reflect the mission of the university, both socially and spiritually, as this is the true test of success for any person or organization. This is encouraged through participation in service, academic and professional organizations. (section 8)

“But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.”
Galatians 5:22-23
Harding provides a Christian environment in which spiritual growth is central. In addition to the promotion of scholarly pursuits, the University endeavors to instill within each student a deeper spiritual quality that, coupled with academic growth, enables the student to build a blessed and useful life. All members of Harding’s administration and faculty are dedicated to building Christian character and responsibility within each student.

Harding University is built with Christ as its chief cornerstone. It provides a setting in which Christian training and participation are encouraged, as well as other opportunities for spiritual growth.

1. Bible Lectureship: The annual Lectureship is conducted in the fall semester and centers around a biblical theme. Numerous speakers from on- and off-campus participate in the program.

2. Mission trips: Some programs host mission trips that provide graduate and professional students with kingdom expansion experiences. Please contact each program for specific details.

“Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave - just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:26-28
DEVOTIONALS
Periodic devotionals beside the Kenneth Davis Lily Pool, in the amphitheater, and at other locations enable one to become more aware of the wonders of God’s creation. Christian fellowship and worship are stressed in devotionals held in various settings in and around campus.

CHURCH SERVICES
To aid spiritual growth and to assist in the development and maintenance of Christian character, students are encouraged to be an active participant at the religious gathering or congregation of their choice. Though graduate and professional course schedules are varied and flexible, every effort is made to avoid direct scheduling conflicts with traditional worship schedules.

CHAPEL DEVOTIONALS
Chapel is important to the basic purpose of Harding University. Our reason for existence is the integration of faith, learning and living. Our major objective is that all students grow spiritually while attending this University. The University holds daily chapel services that graduate and professional students are welcome and encouraged to attend. Services last 35 minutes and always include a devotional period and announcements of general interest. The planned programs are designed to stimulate intellectual, religious, social or aesthetic development. Chapel is under the direction of the president of the University. Many programs are presented by students and student organizations. In addition to the spiritual emphasis and varied programs, chapel provides a coming together experience for the entire student body and faculty. The camaraderie and Christian fellowship opportunity is one of the unique aspects of student life at Harding. Graduate and professional programs often arrange for separate chapel devotionals for their students. Attendance and participation policies are available in program policy documents.

“Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another ... and all the more as you see the day approaching.”
Hebrews 10:23-25
BIBLE CLASSES
Knowledge of the Bible, along with personal and professional application of Christian principles, is one of the most important aspects of the development of Christian character. Every graduate and professional program has a requirement for biblical study. This varies by program, so consult with the program policy for more information.
Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of morality, integrity, orderliness and personal honor. A responsibility of those in the University community is to follow established rules and guidelines in order for the community to function more effectively. Harding University views each person as an individual with certain responsibilities to the University community and reserves the right to refuse admittance or dismiss any student whose lifestyle is not consistent with the Christian principles that Harding represents.

In any situation where a graduate/professional student is involved in an offense with an undergraduate student, sanctions against the graduate/professional student may include those listed in the undergraduate student handbook as well as this handbook.

Ethics and conduct codes, including program-specific criteria for dismissal, may be found in the policies for each program.

of any electronic devices with image capture capabilities, use of devices for purposes of capturing images of test questions or other notes and materials is a violation of academic integrity and will not be tolerated. Capturing images of individuals in secured areas such as bathrooms, locker rooms, and other areas where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy is strictly prohibited.

7. Theft of someone else’s property: The sale of someone else’s property without his or her permission will be dealt with as theft. Theft would also include illegally sharing digital files such as textbooks, music, video, movies, documents and images. If a student is downloading digital files from sources that do not own the copyright of the files, the student is stealing those files. If a student copies and shares files with other people, that, too, is theft on their part and on the part of those who copy the files from that student. Harding University utilizes a software program called CopySense to monitor illegal downloading of copyrighted materials. Students violating copyright laws will be reported to the appropriate graduate/professional program and disciplinary action may be taken, including, but not limited to, loss of network usage.

“Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body.”
1 Corinthians 6:19-20

“Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.”
Colossians 3:1-3
ALCOHOL/DRUGS

As a Christian university community, we will attempt to take an approach to problems with alcohol or drug use characterized by compassion and encouragement, without prejudice on the one hand, and with directness, consistency, and firmness on the other.

The consumption, possession or storage of alcoholic beverages of any kind is prohibited. This prohibition includes on- and off-campus locations. Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action.

Students who voluntarily come to a program administrator confessing involvement with alcohol will be afforded an opportunity to submit to a range of possibilities, up to but not including suspension or expulsion.

Harding forbids the use, possession, distribution, or sale of drugs or drug-related paraphernalia. Violation of this policy will result in suspension.

The University has a right to require a student to immediately participate in a polygraph test, drug test (blood, urine or hair follicle), or breath test.

IMPORTANT DEFINITION:

“Harding student” is defined as any person who has registered for courses at the University, even though such person is not, at the time of the incident, attending classes. Therefore, any student who has registered for classes but who has not actually attended classes, or is away for holidays or between semesters, or who is living away from the Harding campus in the summer is still considered to be a Harding student and subject to the rules and regulations of Harding University.

In any situation where a graduate/professional student is involved in an offense with an undergraduate student, sanctions against the graduate/professional student may include those listed in the undergraduate student handbook, as well as this handbook.
All members of the Harding community must dress with modesty and decency appropriate to the Christian lifestyle and consistent with professional employment standards. For these reasons, students are expected to adhere to a dress code which faculty, staff, and administration will enforce.

OTHER SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES: Each graduate and professional program may have its own opportunity for service. Please consult each program’s policy document for more information.
Two issues are addressed in this section: (1) appropriate behavior regarding the use of social media, and (2) appropriate behavior for participation in online courses. Please note that each program may also have specific policies regarding online communications. Refer to each program’s policy document for more information.

Social Media

The steady growth of social media has outpaced both legal and ethical implications. Currently, multiple lawsuits are pending that involve such issues as employee privacy, an employer’s right to know, contested ownership of social media accounts, and libel.

It is extremely important that students use caution regarding any postings made using social media. This includes, but is not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, Snapchat, and LinkedIn. There is no doubt that future employers will be conducting social media background checks on potential employees, and an inappropriate posting could mean the difference between getting a job or being passed over for further consideration.

As a student, be mindful of both the personal and professional reputations you are building. Know that potential employers will easily see careless and/or inappropriate postings and that such postings can severely damage a reputation (Proverbs 25:10). Following graduation and employment, be certain to become familiar with and abide by employer’s policies regarding social media and internet usage.

“May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.”
Psalm 19:14
Online Courses

Many graduate and professional classes are offered online. Participating in an online course opens up a new area of social interaction where communication occurs solely by way of the written word. Absent from communication are the nonverbal cues to which we have become accustomed in the traditional classroom, including but not limited to tone of voice, body language and facial expressions.

1. Consider the language of electronic communication. While certain new styles of communicating have become common in the virtual age, some are inappropriate in an online course. For example, do not submit a message as though texting. “ru going to snd the article 2me?” is inappropriate in a virtual classroom, and may convey that the author is immature and/or unprofessional. Also avoid typing in all caps, which is conveyed as shouting. Avoid the overuse of exclamation points. The use of emoticons such as :-) or :( should be limited.

2. Show respect. In an online class, fellow students may have cultures, backgrounds and beliefs very different from one another. Remember to always be respectful.

3. Consider the privacy of others. Ask for permission prior to sharing someone’s email messages or private information with others.

4. Do not send inappropriate material. Remember, the online environment for a course is a (virtual) classroom. Do not forward virus warnings, chain letters, jokes, political messages, and the like to classmates or instructors. The sharing of pornographic material, photographic and/or text, is forbidden. If you would not say something or share something in person in front of a traditional classroom, do not share it in the virtual classroom.

5. Spellcheck. If the online learning environment does not have a spellcheck feature, use a word processor to ensure a response is correct before cutting and pasting it into the online discussion forum. Remember that misspelled words will reflect poorly on student performance.

6. Read first, write later. Be sure to read the comments of the instructor and other students before adding new comments; otherwise it will appear as though others’ input is being ignored. It is respectful to acknowledge the comments of others by name. When commenting on a point made by another student, restate the point (briefly) so that others can follow the conversation more easily.

7. Ensure clarity. Write concisely and clearly. Remember the advice about having a topic sentence and sticking to it to avoid going off on tangents.

8. Choose words carefully. It is easy to misinterpret written text. For example, without the nonverbal cues that help us to interpret the speaker’s intent, sarcasm and even an attempt at humor might be misinterpreted. Another example can occur when a person has strong emotions regarding a topic. In such a case, avoid using strong language, words in capital letters, and excessive exclamation points. Re-read written responses from the audience’s point of view before hitting “send.”

9. Think twice before hitting the send button. There is an old adage among carpenters, “Measure twice, cut once.” In an online learning environment, that can be modified to read, “Review twice, send once.” Always review a message before sending it. Once sent there is no taking it back. Review comments for spelling, grammar, clarity, tone, and appropriateness before hitting “send.”
Students at Harding University are encouraged to look for ways to serve others. At the same time, students will encounter the many services the University strives to provide.

Some of these services include the following:

SEARCY CAMPUS STUDENT CENTER

The Hammon Student Center is the hub of Harding University. There are a variety of services in this building: a U.S. Post Office and campus mail room; a food court featuring Chick-fil-A and Panda Express; and a student lounge area for meeting friends and just hanging out by the big-screen TV or around the fireplace, where you can enjoy Einstein Bros. Bagels and Tu Taco. Also in the Student Center are the Harding University Bookstore (HUB); the Market convenience store; the Office of Student Life, which also houses the lost and found; the University College; the Student Association Office; Shores Chapel; and bulletin boards where notices are posted about various campus activities.

Two other snack shops are located in the Mabee Business Building and the Farrar Center for Health Sciences where beverages, snacks, and sandwiches can be purchased. There is also a Midnight Oil Coffee Shop located in the Brackett Library as well as a Starbucks Coffee Shop located in Legacy Park on the west side of Dr. Jimmy Carr Street.

The Career Center staff are available to assist students in crafting resumes, cover letters, and mock job interviews.

DISABILITY SERVICES AND EDUCATIONAL ACCESS
It is the policy of Harding University to accommodate students with disabilities pursuant to federal and state laws. Therefore, any student with a documented disability (e.g., physical, learning, or psychological) who needs to arrange any accommodations must contact his/her instructors and the Office of Disability Services and Educational Access at the beginning of the semester. (If the diagnosis occurs during the academic year, the student must self-identify with the Office of Disability Services and Educational Access as soon as possible in order to get academic accommodations in place for the remainder of the year.) Reasonable accommodations will be provided depending on the documentation of the disability provided from an appropriate licensed health professional who made the diagnosis of the disability according to ADA guidelines.

Disability Services and Educational Access is located in Student Center Room 226; telephone 501-279-4054. This statement represents a responsiveness to federal expectations. It also reveals the desire on the part of the institution to meet its own commitments to students in the academic arena who have documented disabilities.

Since some graduate and professional courses are taught at different sites, students may not have access to Disability Services, the student must (1) self-identify with the instructor of each course, and (2) submit documentation by email to Disability Services on the Searcy campus.

Please note that, at the graduate and professional levels, test accommodations are not provided in Disability Services but are arranged at the program level. Upon receiving the appropriate documentation approved by ADA Guidelines, academic accommodations may be discussed by the instructor via a telephone conference with the director of Disability Services. If you have questions, please contact Bridget Smith, director of Disability Services, at 501-279-4019 or bdsmith@harding.edu.

DIVERSITY SERVICES
The mission of Diversity Services is to promote academic success and citizenship within a global perspective based on Christian understanding of and respect for other cultures. This goal is achieved through providing academic support, cultural awareness, and leadership opportunities. This office serves as the liaison between students and faculty/administrators on issues of diversity. Diversity Services also sponsors the Multicultural Student Action Committee (MSAC) which is composed of student leaders who initiate, plan, and implement programs that increase multicultural awareness on the Harding campus.

STUDENT IDENTIFICATION
At the beginning of each school year, incoming students are issued a student identification card. This card is to be carried at all times on campus and at all Harding activities off campus, and it may not be used by any other person. The ID card must be shown upon request to any school official.
The ID card serves as:
- A library card
- Admission to athletic events
- Key card access to academic buildings appropriate to each student’s program, if required

Lost ID cards must be replaced in the Security Technology Center (605 E. Center Street) at a cost of $10 to the student. This office is responsible for issuing ID cards as well as managing electronic access control (card locks), security cameras and other security-related technologies. ID cards are made Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. The phone number is 501-279-5678.

If a University official (including faculty and staff members) asks a student to surrender the ID card, the student must comply. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action. In case of pending disciplinary action, a student’s ID card may be held. If a student withdraws from school, the ID card must be returned to the University.

Any person not possessing a valid ID card will be treated as a nonstudent.

Librarians assist in locating electronic and print resources. Library instruction is provided to classes upon request and individual assistance is available at the Information Desk.

Harding students may check out an unlimited number of regular stack books. For most students, stack books are checked out for two weeks and may be renewed once. Graduate, professional and honors students may check out books for three weeks. Students with overdue items will receive courtesy notices through their Harding email. At four weeks overdue, books are “assumed lost” and the student is charged an overdue/replacement fee of $60 or the replacement cost, if more. Should the item be found and returned after the fee has been paid, a portion of the fee will be refunded. Checkout periods and fines for juvenile books, reserves, best sellers and multimedia vary. Periodicals and some reference books cannot be checked out.

The Interlibrary Loan Services Department borrows or purchases materials that are not available locally. A small fee of 10 cents per page for articles and $1 per book is charged.

Wireless internet connection and designated areas for group study are available. Midnight Oil coffee shop is in the building. Students are encouraged to offer suggestions for collection development or services via the online suggestion box. Two student representatives serve each year on the Library Committee.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADVISOR

Located in Room 237 of the Student Center, this office exists to help international students in procedures, expectations and requirements between the educational procedures of the United States and their home countries.

The international student advisor is responsible for providing assistance on immigration matters; coordinating all campus and community services available to international students; providing a liaison with sponsoring agencies and foreign governments; and promoting interaction between the international students, the University and the local community.

PUBLIC SAFETY

The Office of Public Safety is located on the north side of the Heritage building across from Admissions Services. The phone number is 501-279-5000. Public Safety officers are on duty 24 hours a day, every day of the year. The Office of Public Safety may be contacted for on-campus emergencies as well as other student needs, such as locked keys in a vehicle, jump starting a battery, emergency transportation to the hospital, and courtesy escorts after dark.

Public Safety officers are medical First Responders and certified in CPR. They have additional training in crime prevention, emergency response and other public safety concerns. Any suspicious behavior, on-campus traffic accidents, on-campus emergencies, and all crimes occurring on campus should be reported immediately to the Office of Public Safety. Information about campus security, safety programs and procedures, fire statistics, and crime statistics is available in compliance with the Jean Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. A copy of the annual security and fire report can be obtained at harding.edu/public-safety/security-report or by contacting the Harding University Office of Public Safety.

The Office of Public Safety has a number of armed officers commissioned by the state of Arkansas. Security cameras and networked access control are used in various locations on campus.

Any questions concerning parking regulations, parking citations or violations should be directed to the Office of Parking Services located at 605 E. Center Street or by calling 501-279-4005.

PERSONAL AND RELATIONAL COUNSELING SERVICES

The Counseling Center at Harding is located on the third floor of the McIneer Building. The mission of the Center is to provide caring and confidential services for the purpose of enhancing the quality of life experience while a student at Harding. The Center is staffed by male and female counselors with many years of experience. Some of the areas of need for students may include stress management, anxiety, personal/social conflicts, depression, and other adjustment difficulties that can develop in a college setting. In the event that a student concern is in need of medical or other specialized service, the Center will assist in making an appropriate referral.

A student may request assistance from the Counseling Center by calling 501-279-4347 or emailing counseling@harding.edu. Also, a student may find additional information and resources at harding.edu/counseling.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICES

Harding University Student Health Services (SHS) provides health assistance and facilitation to currently enrolled students, staff, and faculty related to preventative care and minor illnesses/injuries. SHS is staffed by RNs, who provide symptomatic care and health information, including facilitation of referrals to local medical providers in the event that medical intervention is needed. SHS can provide a limited quantity of over the counter medications for use during short term minor illness. Common preventative care services, such as flu vaccination or TB skin testing, are available at a greatly reduced cost to students. International students must complete TB screening processes required by the Arkansas Department of Health by identifying with the International Student Services Office. Other vaccines such as hepatitis A, hepatitis B and others are given at specific times in the Farrar Center for Health Sciences. These are given at cost or for a nominal fee. Contact Dr. MaRanda Herring (501-279-5606 or mksherring@harding.edu) for more information.

Although we encourage students to carry health insurance for their own benefit in case of extenuating circumstances, SHS does not file any claims with health insurance companies. Financial responsibility related to medical care delivered by local providers rests with the student.

SHS is closed when undergraduate students are not in academic sessions, Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and vacation breaks. If immediate assistance is needed, contact the Office of Public Safety at ext. 5000 or go to the local emergency room at Unity Health located at 3214 E. Race Ave. Students who become ill or injured during clinic hours may report to SHS for advice or medical care.

CONTRACT POSTAL UNIT
The University operates a Contract Postal Unit (CPU), located in the Hammon Student Center, under federal postal laws and regulations. The CPU also offers Western Union money orders and money transfers.

CAMPUS MAIL SERVICES
Separate from the CPU, the University operates Campus Mail Services. University housing is not serviced by U.S. Postal Services home delivery in Searcy; therefore, all students living in University housing are required to have a campus box at no charge. These boxes are typically assigned to students upon registration. A student is not allowed to receive mail/parcels for another person in their box (with the exception of spouse and/or children). Mail will be returned to sender if improperly addressed. Full name and box number are required for delivery of mail. The correct format for receiving items through Campus Mail Services is:

Name/Department
HU 12345 (campus box number)
915 E. Market Ave.
Searcy, AR 72149-5615

Mail sent through Campus Mail Services is in fact mail delivered to the University. The laws and regulations relating to U.S. Postal Service mail delivery only apply before mail has been delivered to the University. Upon delivery to the University, all mail is sorted to individual campus boxes. Upon graduation or withdrawal from school, students must complete a change of address in Pipeline so mail may be forwarded. When leaving the University permanently, students should also notify magazine, newspapers and other correspondents of any address change. Students leaving to attend an International program or leaving for the summer must complete a change of address in Pipeline. This will allow mail to be forwarded until the student’s return to the University. Students no longer residing in University housing, must notify Campus Mail Services in order to keep/close their campus box.
Campus Mail Services also offers an intra-campus mail service for sending and receiving mail communication between departments, students, faculty and staff. Multiple pieces of candy, home-baked goods, etc., must be in factory sealed containers or Ziploc bags. The following items will not be accepted for delivery by Campus Mail Services: any item deemed potentially hazardous, liquids, fruit, vegetables, flowers, or 8.5 x 11 sheets of paper (each sheet must be folded in half or thirds prior to being submitted to Campus Mail Services).

Dining Services strives to keep pace with the ever-changing trends in food service and welcomes your input.

The Range Food Hall in the Charles M. White Dining Hall features a Sweet Shoppe dessert experience and specialty pop-up stations featuring a weekly special such as bao buns and create your own quesadillas. PROCEDURES FOR WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Occasionally students find they must withdraw completely from the university. The following are steps for withdrawing from the university for students enrolled in classes on the Searcy campus:

1. The student must begin the withdrawal process through his/her program office. Each program may differ, so please consult with the program’s policy document.

2. The student is then required to visit with the Office of Financial Aid Services for an exit interview.

3. The student will submit the completed and signed withdrawal form to the Registrar’s Office.

The following are steps for withdrawing from the university for students who are enrolled in a class not on the Searcy campus or only in online courses:

1. The student must begin the withdrawal process through his/her program office. Each program may differ, so please consult with the program’s policy document.

2. The program office will notify the Office of Financial Aid Services, Business Office, and Registrar’s Office of the withdrawal.

Students will not be considered officially withdrawn until the registrar has received notification and completed the drop for all classes. Students who do not complete an official withdrawal may receive a failing grade for each class. Students should consult their respective program offices for official withdrawal deadline dates.

MANDATORY PSYCHIATRIC WITHDRAWAL OF STUDENTS

1. A student will be subject to mandatory psychiatric withdrawal if the administration, Counseling Center, or other consulted mental health professionals conclude the student is suffering from a mental disorder, as defined by the current American Psychiatric Association Diagnostic Manual or its equivalent, and, as a result of a mental disorder, engages or threatens to engage in behavior that:

   A. Poses a significant danger of causing imminent physical harm to others; or

   B. Substantially impedes the lawful activities of other members of the campus community, including disruption of residence hall or apartment complex life routine; or
C. Reasonably indicates that the student is unable to successfully complete current academic requirements at the University.

2. Except in emergencies, adequate advance notice must be given to the student that he or she may be subject to mandatory psychiatric withdrawal from the institution. Interim psychiatric withdrawal may be implemented immediately by the appropriate administrator. A student withdrawn on an interim basis shall be given an opportunity to appear personally before the administrator or a designee within 36 hours from the effective date of the withdrawal. For those situations that are not regarded as emergencies, an opportunity will be given to appear within seven business days after the student has been evaluated by the licensed mental health professional selected by the school. The student will remain withdrawn pending completion of the informal proceedings.

3. The appropriate school administrator may require a psychiatric evaluation for good cause.

4. The findings of the health care professional shall be reviewed by an administrator to determine that a psychiatric withdrawal is recommended.

5. The student and family member or mental health professional is to be allowed the opportunity to examine the psychiatric evaluation and to discuss it in an informal proceeding before any final determination is made.

6. Prior to readmission, a student will be required to provide a written evaluation from a licensed mental health care professional and to submit to an evaluation by the University’s Counseling Center staff.

As in the case of any procedural guidelines, Harding University reserves the right to change or to make appropriate revision, additions, amendments or corrections.

LEGAL NOTICES

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (called FERPA) provides, with certain exceptions, (1) that students shall have a right of access to their education records and (2) that education institutions shall not release education records to non-school employees without the consent of the student. “Students” as used in this notice includes former students.

Right of Access. With few exceptions provided by law, students at Harding may see their education records upon request. Access will generally be granted immediately upon request, however, it is guaranteed within 45 days of the request. Students are entitled to copies (at the student’s expense) of records to which they have access. Students further have the right, under established procedures, to challenge the accuracy of the records and to enter their viewpoints in the records. A list of all education records maintained by Harding and a copy of the University FERPA Policy are kept in the Harding Office of Student Life.

The University may not require students to sign a waiver of their right to access, but students should be aware that recommendations and evaluations may not be very helpful or candid without a signed waiver.

A student’s home address and phone number will be made available to a roommate assigned to that person.

Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996

Harding complies with applicable privacy and security standards, requirements, and implementation specifications pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. Notice of the uses and disclosures of protected health information made by Harding and students’ rights and Harding’s duties with respect to protected health information is provided to each student.

Title IX and Sexual Harassment

Harding University reaffirms the principle that students, faculty and staff have the right to be free from sex discrimination in the form of sexual harassment by any member of the academic community.

Sexual harassment is defined as an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship, or to subject a person to unwanted sexual attention, or to punish a refusal to comply, or to create a sexually intimidating, hostile or offensive environment. Sexual harassment is generally understood to include a wide range of behaviors, from the actual coercing of sexual relations to the unwelcome or inappropriate emphasizing of sexual identity. This definition will be interpreted and applied consistent with Christian standards of behavior and conduct.

A student who believes that he or she has been sexually harassed may obtain redress through informal and formal procedures of the University. Complaints about sexual harassment will receive prompt and equitable response. The right to confidentiality of all members of the academic community will be respected in both informal and formal procedures, insofar as is possible. Retaliation against individuals for bringing bona fide complaints of sexual harassment is expressly prohibited. Knowingly or willfully making a false claim is subject to discipline up to but not limited to dismissal from school. Formal procedures will not be initiated without a signed and verified written complaint. An individual found to have engaged in sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action for violations of the policy, consistent with existing procedures.

Kevin Davis, assistant director of Public Safety, and Amie Carter, assistant director of Human Resources, serve as Title IX Coordinators of the University. Sexual harassment claims against a student may be filed in the Office of Student Life in Student Center 218 or in the Office of Public Safety in Heritage Center 106. Claims against a faculty or staff member may be filed in Human Resources in Ezell 130.

Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Complainants and witnesses who report or participate in an investigation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking will not be subject to disciplinary sanctions, such as suspension or probation, for violations of the code of conduct that occurred at or near the time of the incident. A student who believes that he or she is the victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking may obtain redress through procedures of the University. Complaints will receive prompt and equitable response. The right to confidentiality of all members of the academic community will be respected, insofar as is possible. Retaliation against individuals for bringing bona fide complaints is expressly prohibited. Knowingly or willfully making a false claim is subject to discipline up to but not limited to dismissal from the University. Formal procedures will not be initiated without a signed and verified written complaint. An individual found to have engaged in dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking is subject to disciplinary action for violations of the policy, consistent with existing procedures.

Claims made by a student against another student may be filed with the Office of Student Life in Student Center 218 or in the Office of Public Safety in Heritage Center 106. Claims made by a student against a faculty or staff member may be filed with the Office of Human Resources in Ezell 130. A copy of the rights of the accuser and accused will be made available at the time the complaint is filed. Further information may be obtained through the annual security report at harding.edu/DPS/.

Right to Search

The student, by being enrolled at the University, consents and grants to the University the right to enter and/or search that student's room, with or without the student's presence, to search his or her possessions that are in or on University property, to search computer files and data-storage devices, and for a reasonable period of time, to maintain possession of anything by which the student violates the rules and regulations of the University.

Right of Refusal

The student, by being enrolled at the University, directs and authorizes the University to refuse any item sent to the student through any means, including Mail Services, if the University finds possession of the item by the student would be inappropriate, would violate the rules and regulations of the University, or would be contrary to the mission of the University.
Harding is a Drug-Free School — It’s the Law

Harding’s policy states that drug and alcohol possession or use is not tolerated. Harding has chosen to take a strong stand against the use of controlled substances because of the significant risks that students assume when deciding to use them. Many of these substances are physically or psychologically addicting; the composition of “street” drugs can never be determined by the user and is often dangerous; strictly enforced laws and policies can lead to serious consequences for even the experimenter or occasional user. The negative personal consequences that can happen to a student far outweigh any brief exhilaration or escape. The University strongly believes that any use of controlled substances is contrary to the mission of Harding University. Students seeking information or personal assistance for substance abuse can receive counseling and referral to community resources in the Counseling Center.

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act requires our school to outlaw the possession, use, or distribution of illegal drugs and alcohol by students and school employees on school property or during school activities. It also requires us to explain the risks that drug and alcohol use may cause to an individual’s health.

Drug and alcohol use can:
- Distort what an individual sees, hears and feels.
- Make an individual feel they are doing their best when their actual performance is poor.
- Cause crime at school.
- Interfere with how an individual’s brain uses information.
- Give an individual a criminal record.

Marijuana use can:
- Cut mental powers.
- Slow physical reflexes.
- Affect space and distance judgment.
- Make an individual forgetful.
- Damage lungs, reproductive organs and brain.

Cocaine use can:
- Cause a heart attack.
- Cause emotional problems, mood swings, or lack of dependability.
- Cause an individual to make poor judgments.
- Cause crime.
- Be addictive.

Heroin use can:
- Cause total disinterest in anything except drugs.
- Cause crime.
- Spread disease.
- Result in overdose, coma or death.

Hallucinogen use can:
- Cause distortion.
- Cause sudden, bizarre behavior changes.
- Cause loss of concentration and memory.
- Cause permanent loss of brain function.

Alcohol use can:
- Cause loss of concentration, coordination and judgment.
- Cause inability to deal with problems.
- Increase aggressive behavior.
- Cause difficulty in learning and remembering.

- Make an individual panic or behave wildly.

Federal and state laws prohibit the possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs. In addition, the state of Arkansas has laws that pertain to alcohol use and possession. A list of federal penalties and sanctions for illegal trafficking and possession of a controlled substance may be viewed at https://www.dea.gov/sites/default/files/2018-06/drug_of_abuse.pdf#page=30. Arkansas Code regarding controlled substances is provided through the “Arkansas Law” link at arkleg.state.ar.us. A brief overview of federal and state sanctions is available in the Office of Student Life.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Each of our students is responsible for knowing all the policies and regulations contained within this document. Each also is expected to demonstrate a respect for oneself and the rights and property of others, both within and outside the University community.

“Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable — if anything is excellent or praiseworthy — think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard — put into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.”

Philippians 4:8-9
