Dear Prospective Counselor,

Thank you for your interest in working at Camp Tahkodah. I am excited that you are considering being a part of this incredible ministry.

It is no secret that Christian camping contributes much to the spiritual formation of the children and teenagers who choose to spend part of their summer at camps like Tahkodah. It is also true that a camp is only as good as its counseling staff. I believe that the quality of the counseling staff is more important to a great camp than equipment, scenery, and facilities combined. The positive impact that Tahkodah has had on campers through the years has been a direct result of the character of those who have served as counselors. Counselors fill a crucial role in making camp run smoothly and creating an environment in which campers can grow in their desire for, and their relationship with, God. Counselors and assistant counselors are paid, but I hope your reasons for applying go far beyond the benefits to you.

Camp Tahkodah is a Harding owned facility in use year-round. The caretakers are Jason and Beckie Clark. They maintain the camp property, help with summer camp, and host the rental groups from August to May. I direct the summer Christian youth camp that consists of five sessions lasting a total of eight weeks in June and July. The attached application is for persons seeking a position of counselor or assistant counselor for one or more of those sessions.

Camp Tahkodah is rustic by design, and I believe that kids benefit spiritually, socially, emotionally, and physically when they are led to experience personal growth activities in a safe and structured environment surrounded by God’s creation. To grow in their faith, kids need role models who will take them seriously and treat them respectfully. The goal is to make a difference in the lives of the campers who choose Tahkodah, and I am looking for mature, fun, responsible, and Christ-like young adults to help in that mission. Being a counselor at Tahkodah is a ministry role in which you are called on to form relationships with campers, to be an intentional example to them, to live with them in a cabin, and to supervise recreational activities. It is almost a 24/7 role, but one that you will undoubtedly find rewarding.

Thanks, again, for your interest in this ministry. Please be praying about this; I will be. Also, please review the attached application and contact me with any questions you may have. If you would like to talk to former counselors, I would be glad to supply you with the names of those who have filled these roles before. If you need additional copies for other people who you think would make great counselors, the application form can be downloaded from www.harding.edu/tahkodah. I look forward to hearing from you.

Applicants who accept a job as counselor and wish reasonable accommodation must make a formal request to the Director of Camp Tahkodah and must be prepared to provide documentation substantiating the claimed disability.

Compensation

Though Tahkodah counselors are paid, but we hope that you are pursuing this opportunity primarily for ministry reasons. In addition to a salary, Camp Tahkodah will also furnish members of the counseling staff with lodging, a T-shirt, and all meals while in camp. You will be asked to sign a statement at the bottom of the last page of the application indicating your knowledge of and willingness to comply with the responsibilities detailed in this document.
3. If you have not worked at Tahkodah, supply reference forms to three persons who will serve as references for you. One copy of the form is on pages 7-8 of this application. 4. Contracts can be revised if additional sessions become available.
